

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Washington, DC

January 9, 2022

The Synod comes to Holy Trinity

This Synod is for All of Us Widen the Circle for the Synod
By Tania Chomiak-Salvi

If you are reading this in the Holy Trinity Parish bulletin, you are not our audience. But we hope that you take this note to our actual audience.

A few weeks ago in this space, Fr Kevin announced the launch of our parish's participation in the Synod. Last week, parishioner Brian Flanagan taught us about the synodal process. Pope Francis launched the Synod as a worldwide "season of the spirit."

The Church is us. This journey asks us to reflect together on what the Church is for us and what we want it to be. Holy Trinity Parish is not shy. We want our voices to be heard in Rome. We are active in this Synod.

The church is also those of us who have drifted away. It has been too easy to drift away in recent years. Allegations of sexual abuse, evidence that members of the hierarchy didn't protect the vulnerable, entangling politics with the spirit, and – most recently – the literal closure of sanctuaries to protect from the pandemic. Too easy.

Can we call each other back? Can we reflect on what our church is? Can we feel God gazing at us? Can we appreciate the connection that humans share and the presence of the Spirit in the spaces between us?

We will meet four times to consider these questions:

- How are you invited to be engaged and are there things that hinder you from being active in this parish?
- What space is there for the Church to listen to the voices on the peripheries, especially cultural groups, women, people with disabilities, those who experience poverty, marginalization, or social exclusion?
- How does your prayer life and celebration of the Mass inspire and inform your personal decisions and decisions in the parish community?

Two meetings will be on Zoom and two in person. You need only to join one meeting. Each meeting will consider all three questions. Join us:

- Sunday, January 16, 2 pm on Zoom
 - Thursday, January 20, 7 pm, on Zoom
 - Sunday, January 23, 2 pm, McKenna Hall*
 - Thursday January 27, 7pm, McKenna Hall*
- (*pandemic conditions permitting)

Zoom links will be shared closer to the meeting dates, on the website and in the bulletin.

If you are reading this in the bulletin, would you consider reaching out to a friend or relative who has drifted away? Would you invite them to tell us – and tell Rome – what seems to be missing? Could we draw together again in the Spirit? ✨

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

On Christmas Day, Loyola Productions launched a four part series on Netflix as a way of advocating for greater empathy and better understanding of the elderly.

Titled "Stories of a Generation-with Pope Francis", the series presents a variety of illustrations of elderly men and women across the world. There are four major themes: Love, Dreams, Perseverance and Work. During each hour-long segment one hears an elderly person speak about his or her life meanings from their past, in the present and toward their future. Elderly individuals and couples from around the world are highlighted; including noted environmentalist Jane Goodall. In one noteworthy scene, the viewer observes Pope Francis relating his memories of how his grandmother shaped his life. I highly recommend this profound show.

This series coincidentally complimented my Christmas visit to family and friends' relatives in the Philadelphia area. For several days I was able to visit Jesuits in their retirement community as well as the neighborhood of my older sister and her husband who recently moved into a community of peers.

Through my visits I gained a greater sense of how material, psychological and spiritual needs of these family members and fellow Jesuits are quite challenging and the ways in which they are and are not being met. I realized that even in a safe and secure retired environment growing old is by no means easy.

Aging is certainly an ongoing area of ministerial concern when I learn how so many of our elder parishioners are challenged physically, socially, mentally and even spiritually especially during this pandemic. Fortunately we have several parish programs that seek to respond to the needs of our older parishioners. For example, there is the Homebound Communion Ministry, a team of volunteer Eucharist ministers coordinated by Richard Shullaw. Perhaps you have seen a couple of ministers approach the altar at the end of Communion to receive several hosts and then be missioned on behalf of the parish to homebound parishioners. Please contact Lisa Dittmeier parishlife@trinity.org if you are interested in participating in this important ministry.

There are also several other parish programs geared to aging parishioners. For example, the Conscious Living Group seeks to help the conscious living person attend to his or her life review and to journey within to find God anew. trinity.org/parish-life/conscious-living-group/. The parish's "50Plus group" offers "an exciting schedule of activities organized for parishioners who are 50 or over, married or single, working or retired." trinity.org/parish-life/50-plus-group Finally other groups while not limited to the elderly so serve to support those who are going through a life transition. These include: our Grief Support Group; trinity.org/grief-support-group/ our Separated and Divorce Support Group; trinity.org/parish-life/separateddivorcedwidowed-support-group/ and our Aging Support Network trinity.org/parish-life/aging-support-network

If you are undergoing the transition of aging, please feel free to participate in one of more of these important ministries.

"IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA" by Pedro Rodríguez-Ponga, Illustrator, Ignasi Flores

Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola Information Session

Saturdays, 11:00 am (January 8, March 19, May 21, 2022)

"Discernment is not only necessary when serious problems have to be solved, it is an instrument of struggle to follow the Lord better day by day and hour by hour." jesuits.org

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are one way in our Catholic tradition to come to love as God loves. Throughout the 8-9 month retreat, made in daily life, the retreatant can grow in self-knowledge, deepen their intimacy with Jesus, and grow in their practice of discernment of spirits. Through this potentially life-changing journey, the individual becomes spiritually freer to respond generously and wholeheartedly to God's invitations to love. Join us for an hour conversation about this gift that God gave the church through St. Ignatius. Contact Martina O'Shea moshea@trinity.org for the link to the online session.

Pandemic Reflections: Slowing Down

During this pandemic, often our plans have been dashed and our hardships amplified. We've been forced to slow down and simplify our existence at times. What's most important rises to the surface: our spiritual and emotional connection to God, family, friends, community and Creation... and the health of those we love. Pope John Paul II reminds us that in light of Christ's death and resurrection, suffering is no longer an exclusively negative event. "Rather, it is seen as...an opportunity to release love..., to transform the whole of civilization...' Salvifici Doloris, #30)". What positive changes and behaviors can we carry forward from this forced slow down? What new insights will we have into what material things we really need in life? How can working together to overcome the COVID-19 variant crisis provide learnings on how to overcome other crises, like the climate crisis?

This is not just a tragedy for him, but touches the lives of others who are close to him. Watch ahead of time - see streaming options and trailer: trinity.org/mmog.
