

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Washington, DC

January 30, 2022

The Road to Setting Captives Free By Martina O'Shea

Five years ago, Father Gap LoBiondo, S.J. then superior of the Jesuit Community at Gonzaga College High School, initiated conversations with ministers of Ignatian Spirituality in the Washington area. He sought to explore how the resources found in the ten Jesuit or Jesuit-affiliated institutions in the Washington area could be more accessible to meeting individuals' requests for retreats, spiritual direction, and formation programs in Ignatian Spirituality.

Representatives gathered in March 2017 from the DC area's institutions: the Washington Jesuit Academy, St. Ignatius Parish in Chapel Point, McKenna Center, Loyola Retreat House, Gonzaga College High School, Jesuit Community at St. Aloysius, Georgetown Preparatory High School, Georgetown University, Jesuit Community at Georgetown University, Office of the Assistant to the Provincial for Spirituality Ministries, and Holy Trinity Church. We began what would become a five-year journey of reading and reflecting on significant Jesuit documents while engaging in discernment and spiritual conversation.

We had no idea where we were being led! We sought, however, to create a discerning community that would follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we collaborated across institutional boundaries. In this way we would embody the mission of the Society of Jesus in the Washington area in its spirituality ministry.

And so, the Washington Area Ministers of Ignatian Spirituality (WAMIS) was born. The initiative had the support of the Provincial, Father Bob Hussey, S.J. Fathers Joe Lingan, S.J. George Witt, S.J. and Kevin Gillespie, S.J.

Each time WAMIS met, we engaged in spiritual conversation and communal discernment. We applied to our meetings the best practices of the presupposition, contemplative listening, and speaking from the heart. Through this process we moved from being a community of "I" to a community of "We."

It was in this spiritual milieu during the summer of 2020 when George Floyd was murdered and the Black Lives

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Sadly the foreboding faces of war seem to be approaching along the borders between Russia and The Ukraine. With the pledged alliances of the NATO nations the faces of more and more forces are preparing to be engaged. One wonders are we headed into another cold war between Russia and the United States and its allies?

During this anxious time and this ominous scenario with Russia being played out, how hopeful it is to hear, in of all places Siberia, from our former Holy Trinity associate, Fr. Tom Simisky. He wrote to me recently relating the hopes and joys of his Russian school children. Is his report from Siberia a mere coincidence or is more of a God-incident?

As you may recall Fr. Tom served here at Holy Trinity from August of 2020 until January of 2021 as he awaited the third or tertianship stage of his Jesuit priestly formation. Last January he went to Portland, Oregon where until May he engaged in our Jesuit tertianship process which included a 30 day silent and directed retreat. As you may know, all Jesuits participate in an intense yet rejuvenating long retreat at the beginning of our Jesuit formation and later some years after ordination. Following his long retreat and some classes in the Constitutions of the Society of Jesus, Fr. Tom returned East and spent the summer at our parish in Raleigh, North Carolina where he regularly said Mass in Spanish and at the same time prepared for his missionary work in Siberia by enhancing his Russian language skills.

Last Fall Fr. Tom finally made to Russia and returned to Tomsk, Siberia where for several summers he had previously labored. In the current issue of our Jesuit East Province magazine, Fr. Tom and his Siberian educational mission work are featured. Here is a link to the article shared-content.jesuits-live.boldfocus.com/wp-content/uploads/sites/10/2022/01/JES_Mag_Winter2022_Spreads.pdf

On pages 18-21 you may find the story titled, "Finding the Way in Siberia." Among the piece's photos there is one of a poster which brightly and proudly declares, "I Love Tomsk (in Russian of course). Photos in the article prompt one to notice how similar the Russian students in Siberia are to our own school students here at Holy Trinity. Sadly the thought occurred to me that some of the grandparents of these Catholic Russian children were for decades in a cold war with Americans. And their parents might again soon be at war in Ukraine and in confrontation with American forces.

If you are inclined to support Fr. Tom's significant missionary endeavors you may do so in the following manner:

Please make checks payable to:
Jesuit Missions, Inc.
Specify that the donation is for:
Tomsk Catholic School
And mail to:
Jesuit Missions, Inc.
1726 New Hampshire Ave NW
Washington, DC 20009

Fr. Tom has informed me that your generosity is vital to continuing his mission. And the shared faith on the faces of his children at the Russian Catholic School in Siberia and our children here at Holy Trinity School offer signs of hope and understanding between nations and for the whole world!

SERVE

Thank You!

On behalf of Hope and a Home, SOME, and LIRS, thank you for your generosity!

Last Saturday parishioners collected snack bags and other donations for So Others Might Eat (SOME). Since May 2020, you have donated over 25,000 snack bags! Our next collection date is February 26. This month you have also helped us support a mother at Hope and a Home as she welcomed her daughter, Ava Elizabeth, and you helped provide set up for a family of four transitioning out of a shelter. Last week, parishioners drove to Stafford, VA to provide the Kahshan family, a participant in the LIRS Afghan Ally program, 3 car loads of donations to start this next stage of their lives.

For updated opportunities to volunteer or donate please visit the social justice ministry pages of our website.

Matter movement spoke to us and to so many of our sisters and brothers, that we gathered to explore our personal complicity with systemic racism. We knew from experience that Ignatian Spirituality could tackle difficult topics. We wondered if the spirituality that we loved and practiced could help us and others uncover our complicity with unjust social structures, help us grow in interior freedom, and with God's grace open us to transformation.

Drawing from the best of Ignatian spirituality while consulting with people of color, we created the Setting Captives Free: Racism, I and You, and God's Liberating Grace retreat. Angela Grady, Nina Santiago, Devarda Jones, Stephen Szolosi, Father Gap LoBiondo, S.J. Father Brian McDermott, S.J. Analise Brower, Kim Cox, John Krambuhl, Father George Witt, S.J. and Martina O'Shea made this project a reality!

During Lent 2021, those who created the retreat made the retreat. Last fall, Holy Trinity's twelve-membered Ignatian Retreat Team made the retreat. During Lent 2022, we are offering the retreat to the faculty, staff, and parishioners of Jesuit institutions in the Washington metro area. Questions? moshea@trinity.org Information can be found at trinity.org/ignatian-spirituality/setting-captives-free ✝

2022 Tithe Grants Deadline for Submission is March 4

The large and small grant RFPs have been posted to our website. Each year the social justice ministry of Holy Trinity Catholic Church awards grants to organizations that address root causes of social justice issues both locally and within the global community. We have a "large grant" category with the goal of providing funds large enough to have a significant social justice impact. Each year the committee in conjunction with the pastor discerns the most pressing social justice issue(s) of the moment and develops a request for proposals to fund organizations seeking to address the root causes of the issue(s) in question. The focus in 2022 is early childhood development. Please pass the invitation on to partners or organizations you work with that may be candidates for either grant. Additional grants are available to organizations focused on care for our common home, youth, food insecurity, affordable housing, returning citizens and immigration. For more information, email aklick@trinity.org

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Stewardship Update:

Thank You to everyone who offered a 2022 pledge! Pledges represent an intention to give that can be changed at any time as your financial circumstances may change. At the same time, pragmatically they help greatly with our budgeting process, while spiritually they demonstrate faith in God and a commitment to the mission of Jesus as lived out through our common life. Pledges are acts of stewardship over the resources and blessings God has entrusted to us.

On a related note, we have noticed that a number of people who switched to electronic payments during the pandemic shutdown are switching back to paper checks. We strongly request folks to maintain their electronic giving and set up recurring electronic payments (through their own institutions or via our system). We discourage checks because many donors have reported to us that paper checks they mailed are not showing up on their statements – they apparently never were delivered in the mail. Also, it costs us more in staff time to process a paper check than the fees we pay for electronic transactions (especially if donors use ACH as opposed to credit cards and set a frequency for once a month or less, so there are less per transaction fees). Questions? Email Rock Schuler, Director of Stewardship, at RSchuler@trinity.org or call him at 301-455-5437.

If you have not yet had a chance to pledge for 2022, join the hundreds who have made this intention to support Jesus' work among and through us by offering your 2022 pledge now! you can do so here trinity.org (top orange banner) Thank you!
