Join Us On the Lenten Journey By Beth Frigola-McGinn

During this season of Lent we are invited to live the Gospel more consciously, more lovingly, more gratefully, so we can become more like Jesus. As the People of God, graced with God's unfailing and unconditional love, we remember the covenant made long ago with those to whom the Lord our God spoke first: Naoh, Abraham and their descendants. This covenant of love was strengthened and fulfilled through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, our brother through adoption.

Lent is a time when we as a parish community, can intentionally practice the disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, as we are transformed by God. When we come to know the person of Jesus, we want to be more like him. We want to let go of all that hinders us from loving as he does.

We invite you to prayerfully consider choosing a way to enter more intentionally into this season by engaging with the practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving through the programs we offer. Throughout this bulletin you will find a number of activities that provide opportunities to practice these disciplines. Whether it is praying for your fellow parishioners, signing up for a faith sharing group, or donating to the Lenten Food Drive hosted by the Holy Trinity School 7th grade class - there are a number of ways you can participate. In doing so, you will be part of the larger parish community as together we make this 2022 Lenten journey.

And, please don't forget to pick up a copy of the "Sacred Space for Lent" booklet in the back of the church. The pamphlet, which is provided by Holy Trinity's Ignatian Spirituality & Prayer Ministry and made possible through the generosity of our parish pledge donors, includes a daily Scripture reading and points of reflection, as well as a weekly topic enhanced by six steps of prayer.✝

LIVING OUR MISSION

Open Your Heart, Return to Me!

Fr. Bill Woody, S.J.

Every Ash Wednesday I'm struck by the words of Jesus exhorting us "not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them," with ostentatious religious displays aimed at recognition and reward. Yet each year we hear these words of Matthew's Gospel, (hopefully) take them to heart...and then promptly smear our forehead with ashes for the rest of the day. On the surface it seems like a far cry from Jesus' instruction to "anoint your head and wash your face, so that you may not appear to be fasting." But even so, as a child I remember the church always being packed on Ash Wednesday – after all, everyone could tell who had been to church that day and who had not!

A more cynical observer might point to the practices of Ash Wednesday as incongruent or even hypocritical when faced with the words of Christ. But our outward signs of repentance and the desire for reform speak to a deeper transformation, to a good and holy desire within us – the desire for reconciliation with God and renewal in our hearts.

For all the ironies of the Gospel reading inaugurating our Lenten season, I love to pray with the words of the prophet Joel at the outset of Lent: "Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart... rend your hearts, not your garments, and return to the Lord your God!" Each year we are invited anew into a season not simply of deprivation and self-denial, but of renewal and rebirth. Our outward signs mean nothing if they are not accompanied by the more profound conversion that God deeply desires: a rending of our hearts, opened and exposed to God; hearts turned over to the Lord wholly and without reserve.

This is what God desires and where the Lord invites us. But God doesn't command an impossible task to us and just leave us to fend for ourselves! He gives us the perfect model of such a heart in his beloved Son. Praying with this image of a heart "rent open" toward another, I look to the image of the Sacred Heart as the space of both offering and invitation by God, of giving over and calling forth. The tenderness and love incarnate in the Sacred Heart of Jesus captures perfectly the movement of the Lenten season. Jesus invites us toward a heart teeming with love for us, a heart wounded and pierced, exposed and offered. We encounter a heart that is aflame with love and overflowing with God's mercy and compassion; a love that is poured out for all, offered to each of us. We see in the free and total offering of Christ's own heart the model toward which God invites us. So even now, this Lent, we have the graced opportunity: to return to the Lord with our whole hearts, rent open and poured out to God.

Yes, Lord, make my heart like your own. Make our hearts like yours!

Those who want to learn more about the possibility of becoming Catholic are welcome to come to the Inquiry meetings held every Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Faber Room, Holy Trinity Parish Center. PRAY

Praying in Sacred Space

Lenten Saturdays, 4-5pm, Zoom
(March 5, 12, 19, 26, April 2, 9)

All are invited to prepare for Easter and encounter the Lenten scriptures in a way St. Ignatius introduces us to in the Spiritual Exercises. During the hour, savor the contemplative silence and share with others who are seeking God's presence during this time of returning to the Lord. Come to one session or all — no preparation necessary. All are welcome! Registration link may be found on the website and eLetter. For more information, contact Catherine Heinhold at cheinhold@trinity.org.

Lenten Sacred Space Books

Looking for a way to pray through the Lenten season? Pick up a copy of Sacred Space for Lent in the back of the church this weekend. Each day includes a Scripture reading and points of reflection, as well as a weekly topic enhanced by six steps of prayer. Provided by Holy Trinity's Ignatian Spirituality & Prayer Ministry through the generosity of our parish pledge donors.

Trinity Faith Sharing - Small Groups for Lent

Eight sessions beginning the week of March 6
Register by February 28

Some groups are in person and some are on Zoom. For more information, including dates and times, please visit trinity.org/ignatian-spirituality/faith-sharing-groups

Prayers for Retreat Participants

Forty-five individuals are making the Setting Captives Free: Racism, I and You, and God's Liberating Grace retreat this Lenten season. Our parish prayer for them is that they may receive the graces of revelation, contrition, sorrow and transformation into the likeness of Christ.

Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola Information Session

Saturdays, 11am - March 19 - May 21, 2022

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are one way in our Catholic tradition to come to love as God loves. Throughout the 8-9 month retreat, made in daily life, the retreatant can grow in self-knowledge, deepen their intimacy with Jesus, and grow in their practice of discernment of spirits. Through this potentially life-changing journey, the individual becomes spiritually freer to respond generously and wholeheartedly to God's invitations to love. Join us for an hour conversation about this gift that God gave the church through St. Ignatius. Contact Martina O'Shea moshea@trinity.org for the link to the online session.

Lector Training Session

March 8, 7pm

Mary Johnston, former Director of Worship at Holy Trinity from 2001-2005, will offer a special one-hour reflection on the spirituality of Lectors via Zoom. Mary is trained in liturgical ministry and served over 30 years in a variety of parishes in five states. For people new to the ministry, the presentation will be the first part of a two-part training series providing an opportunity for current lectors to pause, reflect and be refreshed in your ministry. Information regarding a practical training session in the Church will follow. Contact Helene at hflanagan@trinity.org to register.

Eucharistic Minister Training Session

March 9, 7pm

An hour of reflection on the spirituality of Communion ministers and the Eucharist will be offered via Zoom. Fr. Bryan Massingale Speaks at Holy TrinityMarch 5, 2:30pm, Church

Fr. Massingale joins us to explore the ways in which white nationalism is not simply about racism, but also a threat to the well-being of the entire LGBTQ community. This threat challenges LGBTQ Catholics to a more inclusive understanding of their/our community. It also implicates Catholic practices of complicity in both racial and sexual injustice, and summons an Ignatian inspired imagination that sees and acts differently in response to the needs of vulnerable populations. All are welcome to this Ignatian Year event! Reception to follow in Trinity Hall. RSVP to cheinhold@trinity.org.

2022 Tithe Grants Deadline for Submission is March 4

The large and small grant RFPs have been posted to our website. Each year the social justice ministry of Holy Trinity Catholic Church awards grants to organizations that address root causes of social justice issues both locally and within the global community. We have a "large grant" category with the goal of providing funds large enough to have a significant social justice impact. Each year the committee in conjunction with the pastor discerns the most pressing social justice issue(s) of the moment and develops a request for proposals to fund organizations seeking to address the root causes of the issue(s) in question. The focus in 2022 is early childhood development. Please pass the invitation on to partners or organizations you work with that may be candidates for either grant. Additional grants are available to organizations focused on care for our common home, youth, food insecurity, affordable housing, returning citizens and immigration. For more information, email aklick@trinity.org

ANNOUNCEMENTSStewardship Update:
