“Can I really do nothing?”

By Tania Chomiak-Salvi

The time we are living through will have a label in history books. Life has been slow-moving dread: a global pandemic that stopped everything, a response that divided people more often than it united us. And now an attack that rocks our international system: a large nation in Europe (yes, it is on the European continent) attacks a peaceful, sovereign neighbor. We feel the dread, we hear the confusion of fleeing refugees, we see civilian objects destroyed, we marvel at the courage.

Ukraine has known challenge throughout its history. Many ethnicities and many faiths have their roots in that region, and many of us have historical memory – good and bad – from what is today Ukraine. Modern Ukraine is open and thriving and is home to many faiths. The priest you see blessing troops might be Orthodox or Ukrainian Catholic. The Ukrainians praying, singing praise or blessing each other might be Pentecostals, Mormons, Jews. Ukraine’s Crimean Tatars are a Muslim community. Ukraine is a democracy in more than just politics. A free country of many faiths, heritages, and languages has been attacked.

Together with my family and friends with roots in Ukraine, I have been spending days of dread. While we can, we reach out to our relatives in Ukraine. My mother talks to her cousins in Ukraine daily. They remember their own refugee flight: west, to the U.S. or Canada; or east, to 40 years of Soviet rule. During the past 30 years of Ukraine’s independence, the cousins – not history – decided where they lived, where their children grew up, where they worked. During those 30 years, those children – my second cousins and I – established our own relationships. Today, we watch for familiar scenes in the images of Ukraine. “Is that the building where our apartment is located?” “Is that near Orysia’s house?”

It is absurd, it feels surreal, but it’s happening. What can we do? I pray. Writing this is the most I have spoken about this situation, because I am in such disbelief. I was planning to spend the month of June in Kyiv, sorting my late father’s remaining belongings in the apartment where my parents spent their summers. Now I realize how easily those belongings might be incinerated. Can I really do nothing?

At long last, I learn how praying is actually doing something. In the silence of prayer, in ceasing physical activity and giving space to interior activity, I try to discern hope out of the despair. Hope is what I am doing. In this world, in this time, hope is a heavy lift. I’m working on it.✙

LIVING OUR MISSION
Silence and Simplicity

Kathleen DeJardin, Holy Trinity Dir. of Music

Lent. In thinking about accompanying one another in Christ through this Lenten season, I began thinking of the ways we can make that happen and how that would look, feel and sound. Obviously, in church—where we gather as the Body of Christ each Sunday.

How will that look? When you enter the Church this Lent you are immediately struck by the simplicity of the space. The live, green plants are gone, and you see bare branches. A deep purple cloth swaddles the arms of the large, plain wooden cross. The beautiful lighted cross is covered in plain burlap. The cantor says, “Before we begin, let us take a moment in silence to recall the joys and sorrows we bring to this liturgy. Together, with the bread and wine, we place them on the altar—in repentance, in hope, in gratitude.” We sit in silence. We recall joys and, in these days, we have many sorrows to reflect on.

Silence. We are not always comfortable with silence. Our first thought might be, ‘who forgot their cue!’ But let us be still at this time, considering our past week and what those joys and sorrows are. They probably won’t be the same each week.

Then the music begins simply. A stark chord. The cantor chants, “Hold us in your mercy,” and we repeat that phrase. The cantor chants again, “Hold us in your mercy” and we repeat. The cantor will sing verses throughout the procession and our response to each line will be those two opening chants, “Hold us in your mercy.” After the simple greeting from the presider the cantor will chant our penitential act, “Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison, Kyrie eleison” and we will respond accordingly. We ask for mercy, for healing, for forgiveness.

When we offer the Prayers of the Faithful, our response will be “Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.” Simplicity. Our Eucharistic Acclamations are a simple chant, “Missa Simplex,” the chant we sang during Advent. Within a couple of weeks this chant will be sung simply, without accompaniment. We will be sent forth each week with the Taizé chant, “Jesus, remember me,” the message of the thief at Jesus’ side at his crucifixion. We, too, ask to be remembered.

Our music will reflect the journey of the Lord as he and his disciples make their way to Jerusalem. We wait for the procession through the streets with our palms on Palm Sunday when we sing “Jerusalem, my destiny.”

So, our journey each Sunday this Lent will provide us the opportunity to gather as the Body of Christ and steep ourselves in this season of prayer, almsgiving, and fasting. I encourage everyone to become more focused on texts and praying them more slowly; focusing on the words. I look forward to our Lenten journey to the Cross. See you on the way...

DAILY MASS INTENTIONS

The parish community prays for all of the dead every day at Mass. However, we encourage parishioners to mention specific persons by name during the General Intercessions when invited to do so by the presider.

Parishioners may also request that a specific person be remembered by name at a particular weekday Mass by calling or visiting the receptionist's desk in the Parish Center during normal office hours.

Names must be submitted one week in advance. Persons to be so remembered at weekday Masses this week are:

Week of March 7, 2022

Monday	8:00am
	5:30pm	John corcoran & Jean Cliar+
Tuesday	8:00am	Jim Albanese+
	5:30pm
Wednesday	8:00am
	5:30pm	Rosanne Kelly+
Thursday	8:00am
	5:30pm
Friday	8:00am	Joan Marie Bader+
	5:30pm
Saturday	8:00am	Inez Skinner

Pray for those who are sick: Bill Stokes
Pray for those who are dead: For those we hold in our hearts

PRAYER REQUESTS

To add a name to these prayer lists, please email parishlife@trinity.org or call (202) 903-2801. You must be an immediate relative of the one to be remembered, or have express permission in order to add a name to these lists. The names on this prayer list will be mentioned aloud at Sunday Mass during the General Intercessions and will be published in the parish eLetter and bulletin.

With our hearts aching for what is happening in Ukraine, let us not forget wars in other parts of the world, such as in Yemen, Syria, Ethiopia... I repeat: May weapons be silenced! God is with peacemakers, not with those who use violence.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of conversion and faith formation for individuals who are interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. Those who want to learn more about the possibility of becoming Catholic are welcome to come to the Inquiry meetings held every Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Faber Room, Holy Trinity Parish Center. Please contact Anne Koester at akoester@trinity.org or (202) 903-2825. Holy Trinity also offers RCIA adapted for children and youth who are not Baptized (ages 7 through high school). Please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann at akaufmann@trinity.org (202) 903-2846 for more information.

LGBTQIA+ MINISTRY

Holy Trinity's commitment to accompany one another in Christ invites us to be more deeply aware of the diversity of our community and more welcoming to those who are marginalized by society or the Church. Our lay-led ministry embraces individuals who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning/queer, intersex, asexual and their families and friends. More information and upcoming meetings can be found at www.trinity.org/lgbtqia or by emailing LGBTQIA@trinity.org.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL (PPC)

PPC members share leadership responsibility with our pastor. As advisors to the pastor, PPC members assist the pastor in discerning, articulating and communicating to other parishioners the identity and mission of the parish, and they assist the pastor in assuring fidelity to that identity and mission. Contact President Tania Chomiak-Salvi at ppcpresident@trinity.org and Vice President Jennifer Dorsey at parishcouncil@trinity.org.

PRAY

Praying in Sacred Space

Lenten Saturdays, 4-5pm, Zoom
(March 12, 19, 26, April 2, 9)

All are invited to prepare for Easter and encounter the Lenten scriptures in a way St. Ignatius introduces us to in the Spiritual Exercises. During the hour, savor the contemplative silence and share with others who are seeking God's presence during this time of returning to the Lord. Come to one session or all — no preparation necessary. All are welcome! Registration link may be found on the website and eLetter. For more information, contact Catherine Heinhold at cheinhold@trinity.org.

Lector Training Session

March 8, 7pm

Mary Johnston, former Director of Worship at Holy Trinity from 2001-2005, will offer a special one-hour reflection on the spirituality of Lectors via Zoom. Mary is trained in liturgical ministry and served over 30 years in a variety of parishes in five states. For people new to the ministry, the presentation will be the first part of a two-part training series providing an opportunity for current lectors to pause, reflect and be refreshed in your ministry. Information regarding a practical training session in the Church will follow. Contact Helene at hflanagan@trinity.org to register.

Eucharistic Minister Training Session

March 9, 7pm

An hour of reflection on the spirituality of Communion ministers and the Eucharist will be offered via Zoom. For people new to the ministry, the presentation will be the first part of a two-part training series that will provide an opportunity for current Communion ministers to pause, reflect and be refreshed in your ministry. Mary Johnston, former Director of Worship from 2001-2005 at Holy Trinity, will lead the reflections. Stay tuned for more information regarding the logistical training. Contact Helene at hflanagan@trinity.org to register.

Jesuit Alumni & Friends Mass

March 12, 5:30pm Church

Jesuit-educated alumni and friends of the Jesuits are invited to a special celebration on the 400th anniversary of the canonization of St. Ignatius Loyola and St. Francis Xavier. Our presider will be Fr. Michael Rozier, SJ, visiting Jesuit Chair in the Department of Health Systems Administration at Georgetown University. A reception will follow the Mass. All are welcome!

Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola Information Session

Saturdays, 11am - March 19 - May 21, 2022

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are one way in our Catholic tradition to come to love as God loves. Throughout the 8-9 month retreat, made in daily life, the retreatant can grow in self-knowledge, deepen their intimacy with Jesus, and grow in their practice of discernment of spirits. Through this potentially life-changing journey, the individual becomes spiritually freer to respond generously and wholeheartedly to God's invitations to love. Join us for an hour conversation about this gift that God gave the church through St. Ignatius. Contact Martina O'Shea moshea@trinity.org for the link to the online session.

A Lenten Afternoon of Word and Song

March 27, 2pm, Church

As part of your Lenten prayer, attend "A Lenten Afternoon of Word and Song," presented by Holy Trinity Music Ministry. Come and be fed spiritually by readings of Pope Francis, Thomas Merton and Karl Barth. Be fed musically by the singing of Lenten hymns, choral anthems, organ and bassoon music written by composers J.S. Bach, Brahms, Buxtehude and Samuel Barber. Featured will be Dr. Kathleen DeJardin, Director of Music and Conductor, Matthew Ogden, Associate Director of Music and Bassoonist, and Rev. James Brobst, OMI, organ, and Holy Trinity lectors. All are invited to this Lenten afternoon of word and song.

Prayers for Retreat Participants

Forty five individuals are making the Setting Captives Free: Racism, I and You, and God's Liberating Grace retreat this Lenten season. We invite you to join in our parish prayer for them is that they may receive the graces of revelation, contrition, sorrow and transformation into the likeness of Christ.

LEARN

Women Who Stayed Winter Series: Women Who Seek Wisdom

For our winter series, we will welcome three speakers and for the fourth week we will gather in a hybrid manner (hopefully!). The first 3 weeks will continue as Zooms at 5:30pm. The final week will be an opportunity for participants over the past two years to gather at 7pm in McKenna Hall in person or via Zoom to reflect and pray together. Please register on our website.

March 7: Dr. Jaime Waters

March 14: Sr. Mary Forman

March 21: Gathering the Graces & Wandering in Wisdom

Movie Moments of Grace: The Collini Case

March 19, 7:30pm, Zoom

Join the discussion of this legal thriller involving a green young public defender assigned to represent a murderer whose offense has historical roots in World War II war crimes. The story is spiced with a dash of romance, and a substantial dose of human sympathy layered with principled choices to be made, with a climactic question about the meaning of justice. Watch ahead of time - see streaming options and trailer: trinity.org/lmmog. RSVP to btmmog@gmail.com by 10pm on Friday, January 21 to receive the Zoom link.

LGBTQIA+ Ministry March Meetings*Family Discussion Group*March 9, 7pm, Zoom

Please join our LGBTQIA+ Families Support Group on 3/9 for camaraderie and discussion, bring your tea or wine to the Zoom. We will be using James Martin's book "Building a Bridge" to provide suggested monthly topics for discussion. Reading materials ahead is not necessary.
