Washington, DC

April 3, 2022

In These Days of Lenten Journey by Dr. Kathleen DeJardin

We are halfway through our Lenten journey to the Cross and Resurrection. We have begun our Masses with silent reflection, added some prayerful silence into the Prayers of the Faithful. We have sung songs of mercy and of the cross. Our Eucharistic Acclamations are now sung without accompaniment as we begin to focus even more intently on our journey to the Triduum.

Our Elect-Patrick, Anina, Ronald, Carolyn, Mihwa, Tristin and Frank are completing their Rite of Christian Initiation program, as they journey to the Easter Vigil to become new members of the Catholic Church. We have been prayerfully supporting them over these past years and look forward to rejoicing with them at the Great Vigil.

There are few opportunities for outdoor assembly processions throughout the church year, but we have three processions to join on Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday and the Easter Vigil. Sunday is Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion. We begin Masses in Trinity Hall where our palms are blessed; we hear the proclamation of Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem and process to the Church singing "Jerusalem, my destiny!"

After the final days of Lent have passed we celebrate Morning Prayer Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 9am in the Church. The Triduum is one continuous liturgy over three nights. Thursday evening we celebrate Holy Thursday of the Lord's Supper and receive the Holy Oils, blessed by Cardinal Gregory at the Chrism Mass, have our feet washed, and process with the Blessed Sacrament to the Altar of Repose in Trinity Hall. The evening ends in silence.

Good Friday afternoon at 4pm we celebrate the Stations of the Cross. The 8pm Good Friday Evening of the Lord's Passion begins in silence. We communally venerate the Cross, receive the Body of Christ and conclude the service in silence. There is an opportunity for individual veneration and quiet prayer. As we have just experienced the Crucifixion of Jesus, Holy Saturday morning begins quietly with Morning Prayer and a final Rite for the Elect, Ephphetha, where their mouth and ears are opened. The Great Easter Vigil begins outside in the courtyard with the Blessing of the Fire and the Preparation of the Paschal Candle. Fr. Kevin will trace the year on the candle and will insert five nails into the candle. He then lights the

LIVING OUR MISSION

by Beth Frigola McGinn

My first day as your new communications director was February 14 – the Feast of St. Valentine. As I settled into my new desk to turn on my computer I heard school children outside my window. “Red Light! ... Green Light!” “I’m going to like it here,” I thought. The sound of kids playing put me at ease – familiar sounds after many years of being a stay-at-home mom.

In a previous life I worked on Capitol Hill, and shortly after that I served as Director of Communications for a trade association. I took a step away from full time office work in 2015 after my oldest daughter (age three at the time) was diagnosed with a rare brain and spinal cord condition that I often describe as being similar to childhood Multiple Sclerosis (MS). Her diagnosis is also what led me to the Catholic faith. Today she is 13, and thankfully attending school and doing quite well.

It was in the Catholic Church that I was introduced to the idea that it's okay to ask God for miracles; to resign myself to God's will; and to accept that ultimately, He has a plan for me that is better than anything I could hope for. Of course, like everyone, I struggle with these ideas at times. But the great thing about the Catholic faith is, it is okay to fail, and you are encouraged to keep trying.

Although my family and I live in Arlington, we have been fortunate to attend mass at Holy Trinity several times. In October of last year, I watched as my nephew received First Holy Communion here. The year before, I was honored to stand beside my niece as she was Confirmed. Each time I attend mass at Holy Trinity, I feel a sense of love, peace and acceptance that very few parishes, very few places, provide.

And just like the masses, parishioners and staff at Holy Trinity have been so kind and welcoming during my first few weeks of work. Everyone asks, “How's it going? Like drinking from a firehose?” I always answer by saying, “It's going well. There's a lot going on here!” Never have I seen a parish with so many wonderful programs, and so many opportunities to connect with one another and with God. There is much to communicate about and many people to communicate with.

Holy Trinity is alive. It is alive with the sound of children. It is alive with beautiful music. It is alive with active and engaged parishioners who seek to “Accompany One Another in Christ, Celebrate God's Love and Transform Lives.”

If you would like to reach out, please email me at bfrigola@trinity.org. I look forward to serving you, serving God and living our mission together.

DAILY MASS INTENTIONS

The parish community prays for all of the dead every day at Mass. However, we encourage parishioners to mention specific persons by name during the General Intercessions when invited to do so by the presider.

Parishioners may also request that a specific person be remembered by name at a particular weekday Mass by calling or visiting the receptionist's desk in the Parish Center during normal office hours.

Names must be submitted one week in advance. Persons to be so remembered at weekday Masses this week are:

Those who want to learn more about the possibility of becoming Catholic are welcome to come to the Inquiry meetings held every Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Faber Room, Holy Trinity Parish Center. Please contact Anne Koester at akoester@trinity.org or (202) 903-2825. Holy Trinity also offers RCIA adapted for children and youth who are not Baptized (ages 7 through high school). Please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann at akaufmann@trinity.org (202) 903-2846 for more information.

LGBTQIA+ MINISTRY

Holy Trinity's commitment to accompany one another in Christ invites us to be more deeply aware of the diversity of our community and more welcoming to those who are marginalized by society or the Church. Our lay-led ministry embraces individuals who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning/queer, intersex, asexual and their families and friends. More information and upcoming meetings can be found at www.trinity.org/lgbtqia or by emailing LGBTQIA@trinity.org.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL (PPC)

PPC members share leadership responsibility with our pastor. As advisors to the pastor, PPC members assist the pastor in discerning, articulating and communicating to other parishioners the identity and mission of the parish, and they assist the pastor in assuring fidelity to that identity and mission. Contact President Tania Chomiak-Salvi at ppcpresident@trinity.org and Vice President Jennifer Dorsey at parishcouncil@trinity.org.

As you enter the Church, find us on the right-hand side, just in front of the balcony overhang. After Mass we will gather in McKenna Hall for our pot-luck YAC Cafe. Bring a friend and food to share!

Pray the Rosary at the gates of the Russia Embassy

Parishioners from several local Catholic Churches have been gathering each Thursday at noon at the gates of the Russian Embassy on Wisconsin Avenue to recite a Rosary for peace and an end to the aggression in Ukraine. They extend the invite to all members of the Holy Trinity community to join them. The group plans to continue gathering throughout Lent and perhaps beyond, depending on the course of events.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL

Holy Trinity Students Support Ukraine

by Kevin McShane

Students at Holy Trinity School (HTS) were busy the past several weeks with various activities aimed at providing symbolic and material support to Ukrainian refugees. On March 25, HTS had a "tag day" and a bake sale to raise money for Ukrainian relief efforts. Some staff and students chose to wear the colors of the Ukrainian flag in solidarity. The 7th graders also made care packages for Ukrainian children seeking refuge in Poland. The packages, which include activities to help kids stay busy, will be hand delivered by an HTS parent later this month. In addition, a Ukrainian flag purchased by HTS now flies under the American flag outside the school entrance, and several classes have walked down to the Ukrainian Embassy on M Street to pray for peace and end to the war.
