Meet the Mbalas Family

by Beth Frigola-McGinn, Director of Communications

This issue of the Bulletin spans the Fourth of July holiday - a time to reflect on and appreciate the freedoms and blessings we enjoy as Americans. Since 2017, the Holy Trinity Social Justice Ministry, through a well-organized and dedicated group of parishioners known as the Migrant Team/Migrant Familia, work to share these blessings with others seeking shelter, education, employment and refuge in this country. Today the team accompanies 18 families from 10 countries: Afghanistan, Cameroon, Congo, Gabon, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Sudan and Ukraine.

Who are these mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, daughters and sons? I recently had the privilege of interviewing one family about their experiences here so far and learn about their culture. Meet the Mbalas family from Congo: Ettienee, Olga and their four children...

Q: Did you go to school or work when you first arrived in the U.S.?

A: When I first arrived, I went to school first, and I worked after.

Q: Did your family come with you then or later?

A: My family followed me after.

Q: Did you celebrate special occasions with friends and family in the Congo? What were those like?

A: Yes, we celebrated marriages, graduations, and many more other events.

Q: What do you miss about home?

A: I miss my mom, brothers, sisters, and all my extended family.

Q: Have you met other people from Congo here?

A: Yes.

Q: How quickly have the children learned English and acclimated?

A: Very fast. We are learning English from them. They have adjusted very quickly, thankfully.

Q: What has been the most challenging thing about trying to settle your family here in the US?

A: First immigration process, second work, and third, housing.

Q: What was the most surprising thing you discovered about living here?

A: Culture difference.

LIVING OUR MISSION

Transforming lives as Ministers of the Assembly

Dr. Kathleen DeJardin, Director of Music Ministries

We have entered our summer period of Ordinary Time with the Solemnities of the Most Holy Trinity and the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Luke's gospel recounts parables and lessons from Jesus as he sends his disciples on their shared mission to bring peace and healing. We learn how to pray and are 'taught' the Lord's own Prayer. We are reminded that we are the Body of Christ and the very Presence of the Master himself, and that we are here to further Jesus' message of the Good News.

Spring has passed and summer has now arrived and is appreciated in many ways. It is a time of rest, of rejuvenation, of vacation, of family, of plans for the coming year.....OK, I suppose I am talking about summers for a Director of Music! But, many of us do find a somewhat different pace and rhythm in our lives at this time, made even more different as we continue to reopen our lives in this new phase of our covid existence.

I especially look forward, as Director of Music, to this period of Ordinary Time for the opportunity to sing some of our parish repertoire that we have not been able to sing during the past Lenten and Easter Seasons, and to learn some new songs as well. And at every Sunday Mass, rejoice at the Ministry of the Assembly alive and well here at Holy Trinity.

So many of us embrace our Minister of the Assembly role as the primary choir at every Mass by picking up the hymnal or worshipaid and singing our songs of faith and joy, of challenge and mission - becoming that one voice of the Body of Christ in prayer throughout the Mass. United in prayer and united in accepting the gospel mission as we sang during the Picnic Mass, "God sends us forth to love and to serve, make known God's name and live God's word, mirror God's love, reflect God's grace till all have seen the Savior's face." (God Sends Us Forth, Text: Tony E. Alonso ©2009. Onelicense.net A-701277)

The ministry of the assembly is who we are and what we will do in our daily lives. It is not a ministry that begins as we enter the Church doors for liturgy and cease as we finish singing the song of Sending Forth. We remain ministers commissioned and committed to be the presence of the risen Christ to all we meet! Our ministry of the assembly does make demands of us. It calls us to be self-giving and self-sacrificing for the good of others. As Ignatius proclaimed, we are a people for others.

I look forward to our time of assembly song over these summer months! Thank you for being such wonderful Ministers of the Assembly!
