

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Washington, DC

September 11, 2022

September is Back to Work for the Parish Pastoral Council

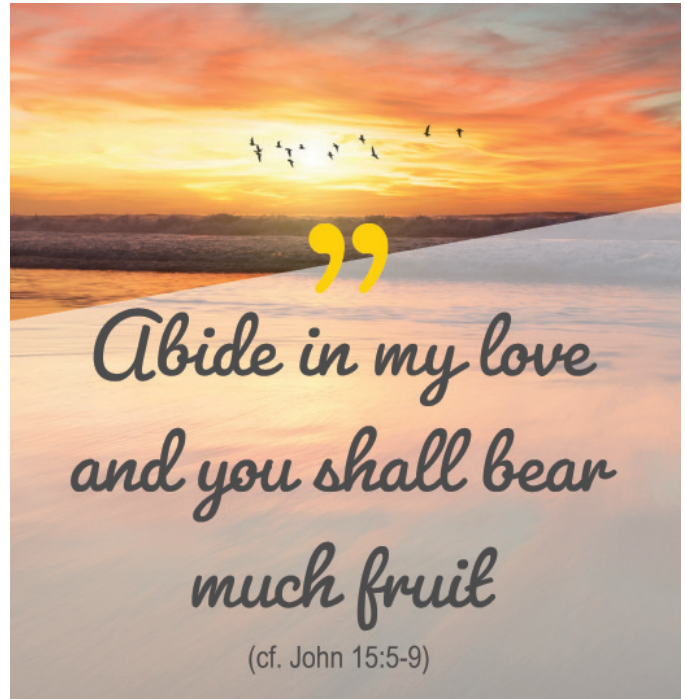

by Jennifer Dorsey, President of the Parish Pastoral Council

As a new academic year begins, so does the year for the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC). This month, our current group of twelve elected members begin another year of working closely with our Pastor, the committees and ministries, the parish staff, the school, and you, Holy Trinity's parishioners. While we don't know exactly what the year will bring, I want to share a bit about what we hope to focus on.

Last year, the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) focused on the parish level efforts to participate in the Synod on Synodality. Many of you joined one of our eight listening sessions or responded to our survey so that the PPC could provide answers to the questions posed by the Archdiocese of Washington, the USCCB, and the Vatican. Your participation was thoughtful, prayerful, and generous and helped us to prepare a thorough report for the Archdiocese. This summer, the Archdiocese released its report synthesizing the listening sessions that occurred in parishes across DC and five Maryland counties.

As we await the efforts of the larger church this coming year, the PPC will continue reflect on the prayerful and thoughtful feedback you provided in the report, particularly comments specific to Holy Trinity itself, and ensure it is a part of our decision-making, advising, and potential action we recommend.

This year, the PPC will also provide opportunities for you to give additional feedback and reflections, as many of you requested. And we always welcome you to attend a meeting (typically the third Wednesday of the month) to listen in or share your thoughts. All PPC meetings are open to any parishioner, in person or by Zoom. Check the bulletin monthly for the specific date, time, and location.

We will bring updates to you as the year progresses, ensuring you know what is happening on the PPC and how you can continue to be involved. We are also here for any concerns you may want to bring to us individually – please never hesitate to reach out.

Please keep us in your prayers as we begin our year working together. We look forward to hearing from you, working with you, and continuing to grow our spiritual home with you.

To reach me directly, you can email ppcpresident@trinity.org. You can also reach our Vice President, Gail Louis at parishcouncil@trinity.org.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

It is good to be back at Holy Trinity! As many of you know, for the past two months I have been away from the parish on a "summer sabbatical." Besides experiencing rest and relaxation, the sabbatical offered me a time to rejuvenate my energies.

From July 1 until September 1, I visited a dozen or so locations in Wales, Ireland, Italy, as well as cities such as Chicago, Minneapolis and Virgin Beach. It was a time to connect and reconnect with family and friends and to make new friends. In so many ways God's graces abounded.

Wales was the first destination, and it was there that I enjoyed a one week retreat at St. Beuno's. How easy it was to pray within the awesome beauty of the Welsh landscape. Looking up at the bright blue skies and gazing at the peaceful herds of cattle and sheep, I could readily sense the presence of the Jesuit poet Gerard Manely Hopkins who wrote some of his finest poems gazing at the same landscapes.

Following my retreat I headed to Ireland, where in County Donegal I visited my first cousins. How moving it was to share with them how my parents as teenagers left their families and came to America where their dreams of family and faith were fulfilled.

Italy was the third foreign country I visited. Through the generosity of two Holy Trinity parishioners I spent a week enjoying the magnificent beauty of Tuscany. There I visited several churches and museums in towns such as Assisi, Florence and Siena. What profound graces I received when we visited the historic remains of St. Francis and St. Clare and saw the magnificent works of Brunelleschi, Da Vinci, Donatello, Fra Angelico, Michelangelo and so many artists of the Renaissance.

Then this past week I visited the Benedictine Monastery and the Ecumenical Institute at St. John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota. How delightful it was to return to the residence where some twenty years ago I had spent a semester writing a book while praying with the Benedictine community.

While in Minnesota I also took the opportunity to visit 37th and Chicago Avenue where a memorial to George Floyd has been constructed. While reflecting at that tragic site I met and spoke with Ms. Angela Harrleson, an aunt of the victim. It was quite moving to speak with her, not only about the trauma she and her family have endured over her nephew's horrific death, but the hopes she had for racial justice and reconciliation grounded in faith and love.

Finally, I should also mention another experience which did not involve traveling abroad. It happened right here in Washington, D.C. when Father Arthur Sosa, S.J., the General of the Society of Jesus, visited Washington to meet and speak with area leaders of our Jesuit institutions. Pictured is Fr. Sosa with parishioner John Byrnes and myself.

All in all it was a fantastic two months, but I am glad that I have been able to return to you, the fabulous parishioners of Holy Trinity.

DAILY MASS INTENTIONS

The parish community prays for all of the dead every day at Mass. However, we encourage parishioners to mention specific persons by name during the General Intercessions when invited to do so by the president.

Parishioners may also request that a specific person be remembered by name at a particular weekday Mass by calling or visiting the receptionist's desk in the Parish Center during normal office hours.

Names must be submitted one week in advance. Persons to be so remembered at weekday Masses this week are:

Week of September 12, 2022

Monday	8:00am
	5:30pm	Gustave Di Bianco +
Tuesday	8:00am
	5:30pm	John J. O'Connell+
Wednesday	8:00am
	5:30pm
Thursday	8:00am
	5:30pm	Deborah M. Sauerhoff+
Friday	8:00am	Ann Gill+
	5:30pm
Saturday	8:00am

Pray for those who are sick: For those we hold in our hearts

Pray for those who are dead: For those we hold in our hearts

PRAYER REQUESTS

To add a name to these prayer lists, please email parishlife@trinity.org or call (202) 903-2801. You must be an immediate relative of the one to be remembered, or have express permission in order to add a name to these lists. The names on this prayer list will be mentioned aloud at Sunday Mass during the General Intercessions and will be published in the parish eLetter and bulletin.

Baptisms and Weddings:

- To schedule a Baptism or Wedding, contact Kathleen Haley at baptisms@trinity.org or weddings@trinity.org, respectively.

Sacrament of the Sick

Communal anointing is celebrated seasonally in the Chapel of St. Ignatius. Call the parish to request the sacrament at home or in the hospital.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of conversion and faith formation for individuals who are interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. Those who want to learn more about the possibility of becoming Catholic are welcome to come to the Inquiry meetings held every Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Faber Room, Holy Trinity Parish Center. Please contact Anne Koester at akoester@trinity.org or (202) 903-2825. Holy Trinity also offers RCIA adapted for children and youth who are not Baptized (ages 7 through high school). Please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann at akaufmann@trinity.org (202) 903-2832 for more information.

LGBTQIA+ MINISTRY

Holy Trinity's commitment to accompany one another in Christ invites us to be more deeply aware of the diversity of our community and more welcoming to those who are marginalized by society or the Church. Our lay-led ministry embraces individuals who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning/queer, intersex, asexual and their families and friends. More information and upcoming meetings can be found at www.trinity.org/lgbtqia or by emailing LGBTQIA@trinity.org.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL (PPC)

PPC members share leadership responsibility with our pastor. As advisors to the pastor, PPC members assist the pastor in discerning, articulating and communicating to other parishioners the identity and mission of the parish, and they assist the pastor in assuring fidelity to that identity and mission. Contact President Tania Chomiak-Salvi at ppcpresident@trinity.org and Vice President Jennifer Dorsey at parishcouncil@trinity.org.

Music Ministry News

Do you like music? Do you like to sing? Do you enjoy community? Do you catch yourself humming a song or hymn after Mass is over? Did you sing in a choir years ago and are thinking about doing that again? If you answered yes to any of these questions....then Holy Trinity Music Ministry is waiting for YOU! We have many choirs from which to choose:

- The newly forming Youth Singers (Grades 5-12)
- 5:30pm Sunday Ensemble
- 9:00am Loyola Ensemble
- Women's Choir, singing once-a-month at the Vigil Mass
- Young Adult Community Ensemble, singing the second of the month at 7:15pm
- 11:30am Ignatian Choir

All of these choirs are looking for both singers and instrumentalists. For more information, email kdejardin@trinity.org. Parents of interested youth singers may visit trinity.org/youthchoir.

Information Sessions on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola

September 24

"Discernment is not only necessary when serious problems have to be solved, it is an instrument of struggle to follow the Lord better day by day and hour by hour." jesuits.org

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are one way in our Catholic tradition to come to love as God loves. Throughout the 8-9 month retreat, made in daily life, the retreatant can grow in self-knowledge, deepen their intimacy with Jesus, and grow in their practice of discernment of spirits. Through this potentially life-changing journey, the woman or man becomes spiritually freer to respond generously and wholeheartedly to God's invitations to love. Join us for an hour conversation about this gift that God gave the church through St. Ignatius. Contact Martina moshea@trinity.org for the link to the online session.

Participate in a Faith Sharing Group this Fall!

"Being a part of this group has helped to tether me to community and God, and helped to broaden my perspective." - Winter 2022 Participant

Holy Trinity parishioners are invited to participate in a small faith sharing group this fall. Trinity Faith Sharing groups offer parishioners a chance to meet for eight weekly one-hour sessions in a small group to discuss the Sunday scriptures and the ways they intersect with our lives. The Fall 2022 session will begin the week of September 18. Please visit trinity.org/faithsharing for more info and to register. Questions? Contact Catherine Heinhold at cheinhold@trinity.org.

SERVE

Sponsor a Student Athlete

The St. Jean Baptiste Haiti Committee is raising funds for new soccer uniforms for the boys and girls at the College of Saint Raymond at our sister parish. Thanks to parishioner Joe Smolinske of the AHM Group, we are able to provide new uniforms for both teams for the amazing price of $20/each. To support a student athlete, please make a check payable to Holy Trinity with Haiti: General Fund in the memo. Mèsi!

COLLEGE SAINT RAYMOND 2022

Catechists for Sunday Morning Faith Formation (grades K-8) Catechists teach in teams of two, and classes meet on Sunday mornings 10:15am-11:15am from September to May. Serving as a catechist not only provides a needed service to Holy Trinity, it also helps you to grow in your own faith. If you are interested in being a catechist or would like more information, please contact Sandy Nguyen, rek8@trinity.org or 202-903-2815.

Catechists for Shepherd's Flock - Faith Formation for Children & Teens with Special Needs

Shepherd's Flock provides a place for children and youth in our parish with special needs to grow in their faith and to prepare to celebrate the sacraments. We are looking for additional adult volunteers to assist and be trained as leaders. If you have experience working with children or teens with special needs or have an interest in serving in Shepherd's Flock, please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann, akaufmann@trinity.org, 202-903-2832 for more information.

Rite of Christian Initiation Adapted for Children (RCIAafc)

RCIAafc adapts the Rite of Christian Initiation for adults to form children and teens who desire to become members of the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil through the celebrations of baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist. Volunteer catechists help guide these children & teens on their journey of faith through weekly sessions. For more information, please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann, akaufmann@trinity.org.

High School Youth Ministry - Volunteer Leaders Needed

Our high school youth ministry program is in need of adult volunteers to help with our Sunday morning youth meetings and to help plan and implement other activities to help engage high school youth in the life of Holy Trinity Parish. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann, akaufmann@trinity.org.

LEARN

Youth Ministry First Meeting

September 18, 10:15am

All students in grades 9-12 are invited to join us for our first weekly Youth Ministry meeting of the year. You can pre-register via the Faith Formation website and choose the Grades 9-12 (High School Youth Ministry) option. Come meet other teens in a casual setting to share faith, get to know each other, and build community among youth at the parish.

Building the Future with Migrants & Refugees

September 24: Taize Prayer & Potluck with HT Migrant Team

September 25: Faith Formation Panel: Building a Future with Migrants & Refugees, 10:15am, Trinity Hall
The Church has been celebrating the World Day of Migrants and Refugees (WDMR) since 1914. This year it will be celebrated on September 25. It is always an occasion to express concern for different vulnerable people on the move; to pray for them as they face many challenges; and to increase awareness about the opportunities that migration offers. As the title for his annual message, the Holy Father has chosen "Building the Future with Migrants and Refugees" as this year's theme.

Women in the New Testament

September 15, 7:15pm. Virtual

Holy Trinity's Book Discussion Group will kick off September with Women in the New Testament by Mary Ann Getty-Sullivan. Anne Koester and Liz McCloskey will be facilitators. Much of the history of women, in religion as in other fields, is lost because it was overlooked or considered unimportant. It is therefore surprising that so many fragments of women's stories survive in the New Testament texts, which were composed by men. Why did they include so many references to women and why are women, as a group, treated so positively by the male New Testament writers? Women in the New Testament shows how the stories of women are an integral part of the Gospel and its meaning for us. For more information, please email parishioner Bob Stewart, grobertstewart1@mac.com.

Women Who Stay: Women Who Care for Creation

In 2022, the Vatican launched the Laudato Si' Action Platform, embarking the global church on a journey towards integral ecology and total sustainability over the next seven years. This fall Women Who Stay welcomes voices that will highlight ways we may care for our common home through justice and prayer. All presentations will be over Zoom at 5:30pm EST. All are welcome!

- September 26: Molly Burhans, Executive Director of Goodlands
- October 3: Brenna Davis, Director of Education for Justice and Environmental Initiatives for the Ignatian Solidarity Network
- October 10: Marianne Comfort, Justice Coordinator for Earth, Antiracism, and Women for the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas
- October 17: Anne McCarthy, OSB, Coordinator of Erie (PA) Benedictines for Peace

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Counting Ministry Volunteers Needed

The Counting Ministry is responsible for counting the weekly Mass collection and preparing it for deposit. We are looking for more volunteers. No experience required! If you can count to 10, we need you! We meet on Mondays at 8:00am (9:00am during Summer) for approximately 1.5 hours. There is an online sign-up so volunteers can choose their own shifts with no minimum commitment. The Counting Ministry is a fun start to the week and an opportunity for fellowship and conversation with other parishioners while counting. To learn more or to become a volunteer, please contact Niccole de Campos at niccoledecampos@mac.com.

Sunday Morning RE

Sunday Morning RE begins on September 18. If you have not yet registered your children, we still have spaces available. Please visit our website and click on the register tab at the top for more information or contact our faith formation office at readmin@trinity.org. For those who have registered, please check your email for important information about the start of classes.

Shepherd's Flock

Shepherd's Flock is Holy Trinity's faith formation program for children and teens with special needs. Using materials from the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd and Loyola Press's adaptive series, catechists tailor lessons to meet the needs of those enrolled both to grow in their relationship with God and also to prepare for the sacraments. For more information or to enroll your children, please visit our website. Classes begin on September 18.
