Young Adults: More than a Social Calendar

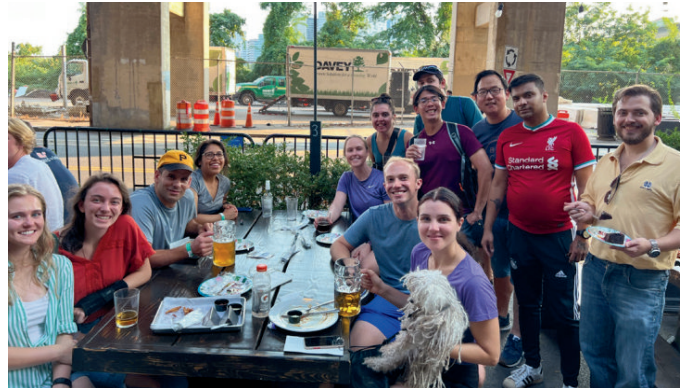

by Mary Finkbone

When I moved to NW DC in 2017, I was looking for an opportunity to meet more young adult Catholics in their 20s and 30s, like me. I wanted to make friends with whom I could share my evening and weekend hours. I had no idea how much God had in store for me with a community that I was hoping would simply “fill my social calendar”.

Little did I know that the Holy Trinity Young Adult Community (YACs) is a ministry that plays together, prays together, and serves together. But more than that, it fosters leadership through engagement and fellowship. We are certainly known for our social gatherings like monthly happy hours, an annual Epiphany party, YACsgiving Thanksgiving potluck, kayaking, and ice skating. These social gatherings nourish our community members, many of whom are new to the area.

But as I soon found out, the YACs are much more than just a social group. We also seek opportunities to deepen our faith in meaningful ways. Weekly faith sharing has been the staple of my faith life for 5 years as we pray together about the Gospel and share with each other how the word of God intersects with our lives. Monthly YAC Masses on the second Sunday of each month are a highlight and staple for many, including YACs who have moved away and come back to visit. Twice yearly YAC retreats have been a constant, taking new forms as virtual retreats, day-long local retreats, and returning to overnight weekend retreats, all amid fluctuating COVID conditions.

We also serve the community together along with the wider parish. Social justice and social calendars have a lot in common! From serving our neighbors experiencing food insecurity and homelessness, to caring for our common home through environmental clean-up, to book clubs addressing pressing social justice issues: opportunities to engage in direct service and discussion deepen our community’s commitment to Gospel values of solidarity with the most poor and vulnerable individuals in our society.

In fostering these opportunities to create community, we form the future (and current) leaders of the church. YACs, including myself, have invested in learning through courses like Principium, offered by the Ignatian Spirituality & Prayer Ministry to deepen lay leaders’ understanding of Ignatian and Jesuit charisms that animate our parish. YACs have deepened their faith through making the Spiritual Exercises and other Ignatian retreats. Members of the YAC community serve as current and former parish council members (including presidents). They serve on the Social Justice, Migrant, Parish Life, Liturgy, RCIA, Youth Ministry, Facilities, Anti-Racism, LGBTQIA+, and Ignatian Spirituality Committees; just to name a few. Former YACs (who are now parishioners of ALL ages) build up this parish in amazing and innumerable ways. So, if you are a young adult in your 20’s and 30’s and are looking to make some friends and fill in your social calendar, you are in the right spot! But don’t be surprised if you get a bit more than you bargained for. ;)

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Recently the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops (USCC) issued their report on the Church's Synod, titled The National Synthesis of the People of God in the United States of America. The Synod began last October then entered into the diocesan and parish phases last spring and now moves on to the international regional next phases which for the USC means collecting data from the diocese among nations in North, Central and South America. As is noted in the report, "Approximately 700,000 American Catholics took advantage of 30,000 opportunities to participate and these meetings led to 22,000 reports... Within a context of pandemic, polarization, and ongoing wounds of the clergy sexual abuse scandal, there has appeared a seed of renewal, a commitment to re-learn the art of listening and envision a new mission, goals, and priorities – remembering that we are on a pilgrimage together."

Here is a link to the full report. www.usccb.org/synod

Perhaps you are like many parishioners wondering what the purpose of the Synod is and what might be its consequences. Let's look at the meaning and the context of the term "synod" and the significance of it happening now. A Vatican website explains the term in the following manner:

Literally speaking the word "synod", derived from two Greek words syn meaning "together" and hodos meaning "road" or "way", means a "coming together". A synod is a religious meeting or assembly at which bishops, gathered around and with the Holy Father, has opportunity to interact with each other and to share information and experiences, in the common pursuit of pastoral solutions which have a universal validity and application. The Synod, generally speaking, can be defined as an assembly of bishops representing the Catholic episcopate, having the task of helping the Pope in the governing of the universal Church by rendering their counsel... The website goes on to explain that in 1965 at the conclusion of the Second Vatican Council Pope Paul VI in an effort to continue the spirit of the Council established the Synod of Bishops. At that time the pope proclaimed:

"The advanced information that We Ourselves are happy to share with you is that we intend to give you some institution, called for by this Council, a "Synod of Bishops", which will be made up of bishops nominated for the most part by the episcopal conferences with our approval and called by the Pope according to the needs of the Church, for his consultation and collaboration, when for the well-being of the Church it might seem to him opportune.

Just as the US Constitution has a way of adapting to the currents of history through the process of amendments, so too does the Church has a synod to address the ongoing needs to respond to "the signs of the times".

Several years ago Pope Francis made a major change in the process when he called for a "synod of synod" by which every Catholic throughout the globe would be given an opportunity to voice their perspectives about the contemporary issues facing the Church, and not just bishops. This past spring we here at Holy Trinity did just that through a series of 8 meetings more than 300 parishioners voiced their concerns. Two weeks ago our Parish Pastoral Council took up the tasks of reviewing the concerns expressed by our synod meetings and deciding how best to respond to them for the sake of our parish. Stay tuned!

Holy Trinity's commitment to accompany one another in Christ invites us to be more deeply aware of the diversity of our community and more welcoming to those who are marginalized by society or the Church. ### Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola Information Session

Saturdays, 11:00 am - October 22

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are one way in our Catholic tradition to come to love as God loves. Throughout the 8-9 month retreat, made in daily life, the retreatant can grow in self-knowledge, deepen their intimacy with Jesus, and grow in their practice of discernment of spirits. Through this potentially life-changing journey, the woman or man becomes spiritually freer to respond generously and wholeheartedly to God's invitations to love. Join us for an hour conversation about this gift that God gave the church through St. Ignatius. Contact Martina O'Shea moshea@trinity.org for the link to the online session.
