Caring for Our Buildings

by Thomas Favret, Managing Director of Parish Operations

Summer is often a quieter time at Holy Trinity, but this year our facilities team was busy making important upgrades around the campus. Drawing on reserve funds and working closely with the parish facilities committee, headed by Maureen McAvey, we made some long overdue repairs.

Most visible may have been the scaffolding around the church and Chapel of St. Ignatius. The exterior windows and wood supporting the roofs had not been painted in decades, evidenced by extensive wood rot and peeling paint! The iconic bell tower of the chapel also had serious damage. Week after week, carpenters and painters restored these hallowed buildings to pristine condition, making them fit for another generation.

Our historic church organ, acquired from the Library of Congress, suffered greatly from high humidity during the start of COVID (when windows and doors were opened) and by months of idleness during the pandemic. When the congregation returned, the air handling system struggled to maintain the proper humidity for the organ - while making the church too cold for the congregation to bear. After making a necessary electrical upgrade, we installed a duct heater to maintain proper humidity and temperature, while ensuring the long-term health and magnificent sound of our organ.

The Parish Center and Faber Annex were constructed in 2000, and the aging roofs of both buildings had begun to leak and needed replacement. We took this opportunity to replace the black tar roof material, which absorbs heat, with white thermoplastic polyolefin (TPO) roof material that reflects up to 90% of the sun's rays, significantly reducing the need for air-conditioning. That, coupled with our upcoming solar panels, LED light replacement and other initiatives, make Holy Trinity "greener" than ever!

At the same time, the sacristy and first and second-floor officers received a makeover, with fresh paint and new carpeting! With these improvements, we continue the work of those before us.

"According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it." 1 Corinthians 3:10

LIVING OUR MISSION

The Body of Christ

by Catherine Heinhold, Pastoral Associate for Ignatian Spirituality & Prayer

A couple of weeks ago, during the 11:30am Sunday Mass, Fr. Brian McDermott, SJ, had just finished giving communion to the Eucharistic ministers and had moved to the front of the center aisle. The choir began to sing From the Many, Make Us One as the people in the first row approached Fr. McDermott to receive the host. “The body of Christ,” Fr. McDermott said. I briefly wondered how I could hear him from my seat half way back on the side. Then I realized he had left his lavalier microphone on, and it was picking up his every word.

“The body of Christ,” he said, over a “hot” mike.

“Hhm,” I mused to myself, “I wonder if someone will tell him?”

“The body of Christ,” he said.

“When we sing and when we cry,” sang the assembly with the choir, “as we live and as we d...”

“The body of Christ,” said Fr. McDermott.

Well, it was only a little bit distracting, so I got back to singing and waiting for my turn to stand and join the procession.

“The body of Christ.”

The song continued, “This our great procession line,” and just as the next line “To this table now we come,” started, Fr. McDermott said again, giving the host to the next person, “the body of Christ.” And as we sang, “from the many make us one,” again, “the body of Christ.”

Finally, it sunk in, and I looked around the church like I hadn’t in a while. Here we were, the body of Christ, receiving the body of Christ! I saw members of the LGBTQIA+ Ministry a few rows away. I saw some of the Coffee & Donut Ministry volunteers. There were a few young adults, and some families with children. Folks who are part of the 50+ Ministry sitting near members of the Migrant Team. And I thought of a longtime 11:30 lector who recently died.

“Walk with all who walked before,” sang the choir.

“The body of Christ,” said Fr. McDermott.

St. Augustine, writing about the Eucharist in the liturgy, said, “Behold who you are. Become what you receive.”

God gifted me in that moment, knocking me out of my complacency to glimpse my fellow parishioners and myself profoundly as we truly are – and as we are invited to become. Transformed by the Eucharist, we can transform the world. It’s an energizing thought – and a deep responsibility to be the body of Christ for others today.

I savored that moment, knowing how the challenges of parish life can obscure the vision I saw. And I’ve stored it in my memory to be called upon when I need a reminder of how beautiful we are: the body of Christ.

DAILY MASS INTENTIONS

The parish community prays for all of the dead every day at Mass. However, we encourage parishioners to mention specific persons by name during the General Intercessions when invited to do so by the presider.

Parishioners may also request that a specific person be remembered by name at a particular weekday Mass by calling or visiting the receptionist's desk in the Parish Center during normal office hours.

Names must be submitted one week in advance. Persons to be so remembered at weekday Masses this week are:

Week of October 17, 2022

Baptisms and Weddings:

- To schedule a Baptism or Wedding, contact Kathleen Haley at baptisms@trinity.org or weddings@trinity.org, respectively.

Sacrament of the Sick

Communal anointing is celebrated seasonally in the Chapel of St. Ignatius. Call the parish to request the sacrament at home or in the hospital.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of conversion and faith formation for individuals who are interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. Those who want to learn more about the possibility of becoming Catholic are welcome to come to the Inquiry meetings held every Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Faber Room, Holy Trinity Parish Center. Please contact Anne Koester at akoester@trinity.org or (202) 903-2825. Holy Trinity also offers RCIA adapted for children and youth who are not Baptized (ages 7 through high school). Please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann at akaufmann@trinity.org (202) 903-2832 for more information.

LGBTQIA+ MINISTRY

Holy Trinity's commitment to accompany one another in Christ invites us to be more deeply aware of the diversity of our community and more welcoming to those who are marginalized by society or the Church. Our lay-led ministry embraces individuals who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning/queer, intersex, asexual and their families and friends. More information and upcoming meetings can be found at www.trinity.org/lgbtqia or by emailing LGBTQIA@trinity.org.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL (PPC)

PPC members share leadership responsibility with our pastor. As advisors to the pastor, PPC members assist the pastor in discerning, articulating and communicating to other parishioners the identity and mission of the parish, and they assist the pastor in assuring fidelity to that identity and mission. Contact President Tania Chomiak-Salvi at ppcpresident@trinity.org and Vice President Jennifer Dorsey at parishcouncil@trinity.org.

Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola Information Session

Saturdays, 11:00 am - October 22

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are one way in our Catholic tradition to come to love as God loves. Throughout the 8-9 month retreat, made in daily life, the retreatant can grow in self-knowledge, deepen their intimacy with Jesus, and grow in their practice of discernment of spirits. Through this potentially life-changing journey, the woman or man becomes spiritually freer to respond generously and wholeheartedly to God's invitations to love. Join us for an hour conversation about this gift that God gave the church through St. Ignatius. Contact Martina O'Shea moshea@trinity.org for the link to the online session.

Case Men's Glee Club Concert

October 24, 7:30pm.

Make plans to attend this free concert featuring the Case Men's Glee Club. Founded in 1897, the Case Men's Glee Club is Case Western Reserve's premier lower voice ensemble. They are a gender-inclusive group that focuses on singing barbershop-style harmony and traditional men's glee music. This year, their fall concert will include selections from the British Isles, such as Loch Lomond and Mairi's Wedding. Holy Trinity welcomes this choir from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio.

Afternoon with a Jesuit

October 30, 4pm, Chapel

The Young Adult Community invites all parishioners to an afternoon conversation with Fr. Ben Hawley, SJ. Father Ben will reflect on the collision of his hopes and dreams for a career and happy life as a layman with the way the Real World works, with what the Real World values and counts as "success" - and how the Spirit of God showed up in human experience as unsuspected intuition and invitation to a better way to live. This session will offer time for story telling and sharing concrete ideas on next steps.

SERVE

Catechists for Baptism Preparation Classes

We are seeking to form a team of catechists to teach baptism preparation classes. These meet monthly and alternate between Monday evening and Saturday morning. Formation and training will be provided. For more information or to volunteer, please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann, akaufmann@trinity.org, 202-803-2832.

Catechists for Sunday Morning Faith Formation (grades K-8) Catechists teach in teams of two, and classes meet on Sunday mornings 10:15am-11:15am from September to May. Serving as a catechist not only provides a needed service to Holy Trinity, it also helps you to grow in your own faith. If you are interested in being a catechist or would like more information, please contact Sandy Nguyen, rek8@trinity.org or 202-903-2815.

High School Youth Ministry - Volunteer Leaders Needed

Our high school youth ministry program is in need of adult volunteers to help with our Sunday morning youth meetings and to help plan and implement other activities to help engage high school youth in the life of Holy Trinity Parish. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann, akaufmann@trinity.org.

Sponsor Families for RCIAafc

The Rite of Christian Initiation adapted for children provides children and their families a way to learn more about the Catholic faith as they consider full initiation through the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist. This happens best when members of our parish accompany them on this journey. We currently need families who would be willing to walk alongside those participating in RCIAafc helping them to see what it looks like to live our Catholic faith as a family. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann, akaufmann@trinity.org.

Maria Madre de los Pobres Immersion Experience

January 25-31, 2023

Consider joining Holy Trinity's Maria Madre de los Pobres Team on a week-long immersion experience at our sister parish in San Salvador, El Salvador. Experience the current reality of this community while increasing your heart's understanding of the circumstances leading to migration. We will host a virtual information session on October 19 from 6-7:30pm. RSVP to Margie Legowski at margielegowski@gmail.com.

So Others Might Eat October

Breakfast Casseroles & SOCKTOBER

Holy Trinity has partnered with SOME for more than 50 years! We will continue to collect snack bags each month, and beginning in October we will expand our support to their breakfast service. We will also add items each month that are needed for women and men experiencing homelessness. The new fall flyer on our website outlines the dates, breakfast kit components, and more. Please continue to sign up so our volunteers know what to expect! Please note collection dates are moving to Sundays, and we will continue to take donations in advance at the Parish Center. Sign up on our website or email aklick@trinity.org.

LEARN

Poetry, Justice & Spirituality

October 27, 7pm, Registration required

We continue our Poetry, Justice & Spirituality gathering with Mary Lou Rife, a member of the Migrant Team, leading us in discussion on "Poetry of Immigration," featuring the works of poets who have migrated from different countries, including Richard Blanco, Julia Alvarez, Naomi Shihab Nye, Warsan Shire, and others who write of their experience in crossing borders. For more information, email aklick@trinity.org

Women Who Stay: Women Who Care for Creation

In 2022, the Vatican launched the Laudato Si' Action Platform, embarking the global church on a journey towards integral ecology and total sustainability over the next seven years. This fall Women Who Stay welcomes voices that will highlight ways we may care for our common home through justice and prayer. All presentations will be over Zoom at 5:30pm EST. All are welcome!

- October 17: Anne McCarthy, OSB, Coordinator of Erie (PA) Benedictines for Peace

Join the IFTJ Delegation

2022 Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice keynote speakers include Bill McKibben, author, educator, and climate activist, Olga Segura, a writer on racial justice and the Catholic Church, and Maka Black Elk, executive director for truth and healing for Red Cloud Indian School, as well as IFTJ musicians, The Peace Poets. Learn more about Bill McKibben and the Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice—we hope that you'll register to join the Holy Trinity Delegation from October 22-24, 2022 in Washington, D.C., as we gather to learn, pray, and advocate for justice. Please email klaskey@trinity.org for more information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Stewardship

Our 2023 Pledge season is almost here! In preparation, several parish households are offering short testimonials about why they offer financial support for our mission and ministries. We hope their stories will inspire you to reflect upon Holy Trinity's importance in your life and in our community. Thank you in advance for making your 2023 Pledge in support of that importance.

From Tom and Nancy Woodley:

As members of Holy Trinity parish, my wife Nancy and I are glad to be a part of a spiritual community of caring and selfless parishioners who contribute their time, services and resources in support of many worthy ministries. For example, the Social Justice Committee, among other things, provides financial assistance to families who are under-privileged and in desperate need of a helping hand. Currently, we are pleased to support HTC efforts to aid the Ukrainian families rendered homeless and hungry due to the warfare in that country.

Social justice grants, funded by the Holy Trinity tithe, which dedicates 10% of all revenue to social justice, provide financial support such as aid to our sister parish and school St. Jean Baptiste in Haiti, and the parish Maria Madre de los Pobres in El Salvador, which serves the poorest of the poor. Additional support is given to organizations protecting immigrant children victimized by trafficking and abuse.

Nancy and I contribute our small part in donating time and needed resources to a parish that cares and does so much for justice and our faith. As Holy Trinity parishioners, we believe this is the least we can do.
