Offertory

We invite you to share your gifts with others in our parish community!

There we were, a host of us from Holy Trinity parading around our local Georgetown neighborhood singing Christmas carols. What began in 2016 when my assistant, Ms. Lisa Dittmeier, organized a dozen parishioners to sing a few carols has mushroomed into a parish chorale consisting of more than 60 members, complete with a trumpeter! And what makes the occasion even more special is that there were people of all ages, from 2-years-old to 80.

Over the years, we carolers have developed a certain method for inviting the neighbors to join in the singing. We first look for a home decorated with Christmas lights, then we ask a couple of children to go run and knock on the door of the residence. When the person inside peers out and sees the children, the door flings open—at which time we all burst out in song, with the neighbor very often joining in. Our traveling show begins each year at Holy Trinity School's flagpole and then after an hour of singing we return to the school conclude the festivities by roasting marshmallows over an open fire.

On such occasions, as we sing one carol after another, I find myself nostalgic, remembering the places and times of my past when I sang a song or hymn. Allow me to recall some of them—perhaps they will stir up some of your own Christmas carol memories.

Silent Night was probably the very first carol I learned. What was your first? You may remember when the Mass was in Latin and hymns such as Adeste Fidelis were, therefore, sung entirely in Latin. Now every time I sing this hymn, I recall the strong Italian-American voice of famed tenor—and Philadelphia's own!—Mario Lanza. Later, as I moved into young adulthood, I grew to admire Nate King Cole's version of The Christmas Song. Although still to this day, I have never roasted chestnuts over an open fire! Have you?

When I entered the Jesuits in 1975, one of the first activities for me and my fellow novices, was to prepare for our Christmas concert. Wearing long black Jesuit cassocks and belt we choir members prepared for the annual Christmas Evening Concert by harmonizing on such songs as, "Lo, How A Rose E're Blooming". Then, after taking vows, a group of us were sent to St. Louis University for philosophy studies where we enjoyed the St. Louis Jesuit music. I recall fondly being at the university's St. Francis Xavier Church when their famous Jesuit quartet premiered their new Christmas album: Gentle Night with such songs as the meditative "Emmanuel" and "Patience People" as well as the upbeat "Exalt You Just Ones". More recently I have come to enjoy "In the Mid bleak Winter" based upon the English poet Christina Rossetti's beautiful verse.

Last week I experienced a live concert of Handel's Messiah at the Kennedy Center, probably for the twentieth time. During the concert, I performed an Ignatian exercise as I imagined the Mother of Jesus singing, "He Shall Feed His Flock," "Come Unto Me," and "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." It certainly deepens the spiritual experience offered by Handel's brilliant oratorio!

I hope that this nostalgic review of Christmas carols and hymns have led to your own remembrance and reverie. Finally, from my brother Jesuits and parish staff colleagues, "...we wish you a Merry Christmas....and a Happy New Year!"

Fr. C. Kevin Gillespie, S.J.

Wintertime Tips from the HT Green Team: Save Energy, Money, and Reduce Harmful Carbon Pollution

Use a programmable thermostat to reduce heat when you are away from home or asleep.

Seal and weatherstrip: you could improve the heating system efficiency by as much as 20%.

Keep your furnace air filters clean. At minimum, change the filter every three months.

Have HVAC equipment tuned-up annually.

Turn off kitchen, bath, and other exhaust fans within 20 minutes after use.

Close your fireplace damper when not in use.

Draperies and shades: Keep south-facing window shades open during the day and closed at night.

Select energy-efficient products when you buy new heating equipment. Look for Energy Star certification.

Make sure vents/registers aren't blocked or covered.

Happy New Year!

And Happy 8th Day of Christmastide!

During these 12 Days of the liturgical Christmas season, our social media feeds have been featuring daily ministerial blessings made possible by the Pledges and Donations of our financial supporters. We started on the 2nd Day of Christmas with the centrality of the Mass and our sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ. Since then, we've reflected on everything from the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius to Movie Moments of Grace! And there's much more to come as we journey toward the 12th Day and Epiphany!

If you missed a chance to support our Christmas Appeal, you can still do so at trinity.org > Give > Holiday > Christmas.

And if you have not yet had a chance to make your 2023 pledge, you can do that at trinity.org > Give > Pledge – or by scanning the above QR code, or by emailing Rock Schuler Director of Stewardship: RSchuler@trinity.org. Questions? Call Rock at 301-455-5437. Thank you!

We are a Jesuit Catholic parish that welcomes all to accompany one another in Christ, celebrate God's love, and transform lives. Join today!

Opportunities to Serve:

So Others Might Eat

Last October, our SOME team transitioned to breakfast kits and casseroles. Due to the success of this new model—thank you!—we will continue through March. Collection dates:

January 22 • February 26 • March 26

Sign up at: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/SOME2023>

Saturday Suppers in 2023

Saturday Suppers will be offered inside the parish hall at Mt Zion beginning in January 2023. Pastor Selena has relaxed the COVID precautions to allow our guests to sit at tables and be served hot food. This was the traditional form of service before the pandemic hit us. We shall now end the preparation of sandwiches and focus on preparing hot food.

The Sign Up Genius (SUG) will suggest dishes and the quantity needed. We shall begin this service on January 7. Volunteers are asked to continue wearing a mask, but our guests will take off their masks to eat and drink. For those anxious about virus transmission, we understand your reason for dropping off your dish, but not staying to serve.

Sign up at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/ssjan2023/#/>

Environmentally, we shall now offer water, lemonade and iced tea in cups from pitchers. We shall end the offer of water and gatorade in plastic bottles. Our intent is to reduce significantly our use of plastic. This also includes the plastic grocery bags currently offered to each of our guests. Questions? Contact Diana Negropontne at negropod@gmail.com.

Cupcakes for Christ House

We will continue to provide monthly birthday cupcakes for the guests at Christ House. Christ House provides comprehensive and compassionate health care to sick, homeless men in the District of Columbia. If you love to bake, consider signing up to bring some birthday joy in 2023!

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION?

What about making 2023 your year of service to others? The 365th Project, an effort by students at Gonzaga College High School, seeks to inspire change by tangible action—after all, love ought to show itself in deeds more than words. We do this through our 1/365 challenge, which inspires individuals to commit 24 hours (1/365th) of their year to the service of others. To learn more, visit 365thproject.org. Questions? Email John Corso at John@365thproject.org.

SUNDAY RE & SHEPHERD'S FLOCK

Beginning January 23, we will celebrate the voices of professional Catholic women from within Holy Trinity's own pews. In our discussion series, we will learn: What does it mean today to be Catholic in the workplace? How can our values help us shine professionally? And when can our faith elevate our problem solving or our uniting?

Through this series of moderated Q&As, we will explore the opportunities and challenges of being a female professional Catholic in today's world. The first four presentations will be held at 5:30pm over Zoom. Register on the website.
