Georgetown, Washington, D.C.

January 15, 2023
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

by Fr. C. Kevin Gillespie, S.J.

Over the past week, countless events were held here in D.C. during which many Holy Trinity parishioners took time not only to reflect on the ongoing significance of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King's life, but to engage in programs inspired by his legacy. And they did so with members of other local faith denominations. continued on page 2

Offertory

We invite you to share your gifts with others in our parish community!

Throughout his ministry of advocating for civil rights, Dr. King often found support, not only from his own Southern Baptist tradition, but by enlisting help from members of other religious denominations. As one scholar described his efforts:

... King's universal horizon transcended Jewish, Christian, and Muslim relationships. He did not believe in the metaphysical unity of religions. He identified both similar and dissimilar teachings across religions. He preached that Christian and non-Christian traditions provided resources for sharing and learning—especially for ethical values. Overall, King's ecumenism contributes to debates about ethnocentric biases and admiration for different faiths...

During this past week I, along with a group of Holy Trinity parishioners, have been engaged in interfaith events inspired by Dr. King's example:

This past Sunday at the Adas Israel Congregation in Cleveland Park, parishioner Jean Johnson and I celebrated the 30th anniversary of Friendship Place. This interfaith organization is a national leader in offering clinical and social support services for thousands of people experiencing homelessness in the D.C.. The two-hour anniversary program we attended engaged members of the Jewish, Christian, and Muslim communities.

This past Friday evening, a group of Holy Trinity parishioners joined me at the Washington Hebrew Congregation's annual commemoration of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. There we encountered congregants from two dozen synagogues, churches, and mosques as we shared in an interfaith Shabbat service. The guest speaker was Cornell Brooks, the former president of the NAACP. Several choirs joined Jewish cantors as they lifted their voices together in song to honor the ideals of Dr. King.

Then on Saturday, a group of Holy Trinity parishioners participated in a MLK Day of prayer and service at five Georgetown locations. Plans for the event were finalized this past Wednesday when an interfaith planning meeting was held by a group of us representing the Georgetown Clergy Association.

So folks, Martin Luther King weekend represents more than simply time taken off from work and school. For members of Holy Trinity Parish, it continues to serve as a time to recollect and reconnect with interfaith believers across the District who—55 years after Dr. King's death—continue to strive to live out the ideals for which he lived and died.

“If we are to have peace on earth, our loyalties must become ecumenical rather than sectional. Our loyalties must transcend our race, our tribe, our class, and our nation; and this means we must develop a world perspective.”

— Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., quotation located on the MLK Memorial monument, Washington Mall

And when can our faith elevate our problem solving or our uniting?

Through this series of moderated Q&As, we will explore the opportunities and challenges of being a female professional Catholic in today's world. The first four presentations will be held at 5:30pm over Zoom. Register on the website.

SETTING CAPTIVES FREE: RACISM AND GOD'S LIBERATING GRACE

An Ignatian Retreat in Daily Life

Weekly, FEBRUARY 19 – MARCH 26, 2023, Online

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 5, 2023

"The slow transformation, or really opening of my eyes and heart, has been interior work in the context of prayer. The other spaces I have been in where we discussed racism were more "exterior" in nature - there were talks, but this retreat was real interior work and intentional prayer with God. I especially appreciated doing this in the context of Ignatian spirituality."

—Retreatant, Lent 2022

Retreatants are asked to commit to 30 minutes of prayer each day for the six weeks of the retreat. Small groups (6-8 individuals) will meet weekly on Zoom for 90 minutes to share the fruits of their prayer. For more information and to register: trinity.org/ignatianspirituality/setting-captives-free. Questions? Contact moshea@trinity.org.

JOIN THE HOLY TRINITY COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE!

Are you looking for a meaningful way to serve your parish community in 2023? We invite you to join us for an interest meeting to kick off the new year! For details, email Isabelle Rohr, Director of Communications, at irohr@trinity.org.

TITHE LARGE GRANT FOCUS 2023

2022-23 marks the 39th year that Holy Trinity Catholic Church has set aside a percentage of its income to address social justice concerns within the Archdiocese of the District of Columbia and beyond. The Tithe Program seeks to address root causes of social justice issues across the DMV. We accomplish this in collaboration with members of the parish through prayer and discernment and by giving our time, talents and resources to vulnerable communities.

In 2014, Holy Trinity Catholic Church began allocating a tithe portion to large social justice grants focusing on a priority theme identified each year. These grants have supported social justice work by addressing issues systemically or by making investments to help sustain service and advocacy-oriented work.

The priority theme for 2023 is Women on the Margins. We are primarily interested in dynamic programs or projects that improve the health and well-being of women, specifically psycho-social health. The RFP is available on our website or you may email aklick@trinity.org for more information. Submissions for both the large grant and small grant programs are due March 3.

GREEN FAIR VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

The HT Green Team is hosting the 2nd Annual Green Fair on April 23. If you are interested in planning and organizing this parish-wide event, please email aklick@trinity.org.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of conversion and faith formation for individuals who are interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. Those who want to learn more about the possibility of becoming Catholic are welcome to come to the inquiry meetings held every Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Faber Room, Holy Trinity Parish Center. Please contact Anne Koester at akoester@trinity.org or (202) 903-2825. Holy Trinity also offers RCIA adapted for children and youth who are not Baptized (ages 7 through high school). Please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann at akaufmann@trinity.org or (202) 903-2832 for more information.

Thank You to everyone who offered a 2023 pledge!

Pledges represent an intention to give that can be changed at any time as your financial circumstances may change. Pragmatically, they help greatly with our budgeting process, while spiritually they demonstrate faith in God and a commitment to the mission of Jesus as lived out through our common life. Pledges are acts of stewardship over the resources and blessings God has entrusted to us.

One of the most cost efficient and helpful ways to pay your pledge is by setting up a recurring checking account (ACH) or credit card payment. ACH payments have smaller fees than cards, yet both cost us less to process than paper checks. They also assure us of regular income during all seasons of the year, and allow you to never worry about missing a pledge payment due to a forgotten checkbook or travel or a missed Mass.

If you made a pledge but have not decided on a payment method, please consider setting up a recurring payment schedule at trinity.org > Give > then click the button labeled "Make a 2023 Pledge/Set Up Recurring Payments". Go to the desired Pledge Fund payment form and be sure to click the "Make this gift recurring" box when you enter the amount of each payment you'd like to make (for example, $100 on a $1200 annual pledge, given monthly). You can set up payments for an existing pledge. You can also just scan this QR code. Questions? Call Rock at 301-455-5437.

If you have not yet had a chance to pledge for 2023, join the hundreds who have made this intention to support Jesus' work among and through us – you can set up a new pledge and payment schedule using the same QR Code. Thank you!

LGBTQIA+ MINISTRY

Holy Trinity's commitment to accompany one another in Christ invites us to be more deeply aware of the diversity of our community and more welcoming to those who are marginalized by society or the Church. Our lay-led ministry embraces individuals who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning/queer, intersex, asexual and their families and friends. More information and can be found at www.trinity.org/lgbtqia or by emailing LGBTQIA@trinity.org.
