Georgetown, Washington, D.C.

January 22, 2023
Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

ECUMENISM: "THE BOND OF PEACE" (EPH. 4:3)

by Fr. William O'Neill, S.J.

Moved by the same Spirit, Christian Churches throughout the world have celebrated the "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity" for over a hundred years. By observing this "octave of prayer for visible Christian unity," our Catholic bishops write, "Christians move toward the fulfillment of Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper 'that they all may be one' (cf. John 17:21)."

As Fr. Gillespie reminded us last week, the fruits of our ecumenical efforts to "preserve the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace" (Eph. 4:3) are evident in Holy Trinity's many interfaith initiatives marking the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Offertory

We invite you to share your gifts with others in our parish community!

And King himself reminds us that "our loyalties must become ecumenical rather than sectional," transcending "our race, our tribe, our class and our nation."

The Roman Catholic Church fully embraced the modern ecumenical movement in Vatican II's Conciliar Decree on Ecumenism, Unitatis Redintegratio (Nov. 21, 1964). Acknowledging our "real but imperfect communion," the Decree states that all Christians "though in different ways, long for the one visible Church of God, a Church truly universal and set forth into the world that the world may be converted to the Gospel and so be saved, to the glory of God." In the wake of the Council, the Vatican initiated a series of international dialogues with various churches, including Anglicans, Lutherans, Reformed Churches, Methodists, Disciples of Christ, Eastern and Oriental Orthodox, the World Baptist Alliance, and certain groups of Pentecostals and Evangelicals. One of the most notable achievements of these dialogues is certainly the 1999 "Joint Declaration on Justification" between the Vatican and the Luther World Federation.

Our international dialogues are complemented by parallel national dialogues, and by 1966 dialogues had begun with five different churches, and more have been established since then. The US Conference of Catholic Bishops is also now a participant in Christian Churches Together in the USA, a new ecumenical forum comprising churches from all the major streams of Christianity."

On Sunday, January 22, we will consider the fruits of one such national dialogue undertaken between the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches (ARC). Our most recent dialogue is centered upon reconciliation, not only of our respective Churches, but of the deep divisions that have riven our country. In our conversation after the 9:30am Mass on Sunday, January 22, (10:15am, Trinity Hall), we will explore the joint contributions of our Churches to climate change and ecological degradation. Our ecumenical collaboration, I believe, can inspire and motivate efforts to preserve "our common home" where political will is often wanting. Indeed, our respective theological traditions, represented by Pope Francis and Rowan Williams, Archbishop Emeritus, support a worldview in which communion in the common good is extended to all of nature. Like Matthew's steward (Mt. 15:32), we have drawn from what is old and new in seeking to restore our global commons in a just and sustainable fashion.

We are a Jesuit Catholic parish that welcomes all to accompany one another in Christ, celebrate God's love, and transform lives. Join today!

Laudato: “DO!”

Join groups to accelerate creation care progress. To protect the poor and future generations, Pope Francis urges the world's 1.3 billion Catholics to take serious action to address the ecological crisis. His encyclical letter Laudato Sí is a compelling call to care for our common home, the Earth, God's great gift to us. This builds on a long history of Catholic social teaching. Joining groups that are taking action on creation care can dramatically accelerate progress. Join the HT Green Team, local civic organizations or state or national advocacy groups- Catholic Climate Covenant, Creation Justice Ministries or the Laudato Sí Movement. There is power in numbers!
You can make a difference!

TITHE LARGE GRANT FOCUS 2023

2022-23 marks the 39th year that Holy Trinity Catholic Church has set aside a percentage of its income to address social justice concerns within the Archdiocese of the District of Columbia and beyond. The Tithe Program seeks to address root causes of social justice issues across the DMV. We accomplish this in collaboration with members of the parish through prayer and discernment and by giving our time, talents and resources to vulnerable communities.

In 2014, Holy Trinity Catholic Church began allocating a tithe portion to large social justice grants focusing on a priority theme identified each year. These grants have supported social justice work by addressing issues systemically or by making investments to help sustain service and advocacy-oriented work.

The priority theme for 2023 is Women on the Margins. We are primarily interested in dynamic programs or projects that improve the health and well-being of women, specifically psycho-social health. The RFP is available on our website or you may email aklick@trinity.org for more information. Submissions for both the large grant and small grant programs are due March 3.

Holy Trinity is Hiring!

- Facility Management Assistant
- Substitute Teacher (ongoing)

To apply to any open positions, please submit a resumé and cover letter to jobs@trinity.org. No calls, please.

Thank You to everyone who offered a 2023 pledge!

Pledges represent an intention to give that can be changed at any time as your financial circumstances may change. Pragmatically, they help greatly with our budgeting process, while spiritually they demonstrate faith in God and a commitment to the mission of Jesus as lived out through our common life. Pledges are acts of stewardship over the resources and blessings God has entrusted to us.

One of the most cost efficient and helpful ways to pay your pledge is by setting up a recurring checking account (ACH) or credit card payment. ACH payments have smaller fees than cards, yet both cost us less to process than paper checks. They also assure us of regular income during all seasons of the year, and allow you to never worry about missing a pledge payment due to a forgotten checkbook or travel or a missed Mass.

If you made a pledge but have not decided on a payment method, please consider setting up a recurring payment schedule at trinity.org > Give > then click the button labeled "Make a 2023 Pledge/Set Up Recurring Payments". Go to the desired Pledge Fund payment form and be sure to click the "Make this gift recurring" box when you enter the amount of each payment you'd like to make (for example, $100 on a $1200 annual pledge, given monthly). You can set up payments for an existing pledge. You can also just scan this QR code. Questions? Call Rock at 301-455-5437.

If you have not yet had a chance to pledge for 2023, join the hundreds who have made this intention to support Jesus' work among and through us – you can set up a new pledge and payment schedule using the same QR Code. Thank you!
