Reconciliation with God and God's Creation — Mother Earth

In his 2015 encyclical Laudato Si', Pope Francis asks us to care for creation and to mend our often-broken relationship with creation, and one another; in other words, an Ecological Conversion. This Ecological Conversion calls us to a new way to live in harmony with our Mother Earth who freely shares her life and love giving essence: clean water to drink, vegetation to nourish and enchant us, air to breathe and her wondrous atmosphere to protect us from the burning rays of her sun.

For far too long have we not 'over fed' on our mother's gifts of her life sustaining nature? For far too long have we not, in the developed world, over fed to the detriment of many of our sisters and brothers less fortunate than we?

Now, Mother Earth is pleading with us to change our ways – be mindful of how our ways impact our sisters and brothers around the globe. And be mindful of actions we can take to reduce our carbon footprint.

According to the Laudato Si' Movement (laudatosimovement.org), an ecological conversion involves four steps:

1. Recognizing that we have harmed creation

"...we must examine our lives and acknowledge the ways in which we have harmed God's creation through our actions and our failure to act" (LS 218).

How?

By reading scientific reports; by going through an ecological examen, checking our own carbon footprint, conducting an energy audit, reviewing our consumption habits, looking for food/water/energy waste.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION: Saturdays, 4:30 - 5:15 PM — Church

2. Repentance and turning to the Creator

“Is it not true that an irresponsible use of creation begins precisely where God is marginalized or even denied? If the relationship between human, creatures, and the Creator is forgotten, matter is reduced to a selfish possession, man becomes the ‘last word’, and the purpose of human existence is reduced to a scramble for the maximum number of possessions possible” (Pope Benedict XVI, General Audience 26 August 2009).

How?

Prayer, receiving the sacrament of reconciliation, restitution, reading and meditating on Scripture.

3. Commitment to change and becoming good stewards of creation

An ecological conversion “must translate into concrete ways of thinking and acting that are more respectful of creation” (Pope Francis, 1 September 2016 message).

How?

Living Laudato Si’ in your day-to-day life (changing lifestyles, cultivating virtues, and attitudes mentioned in Laudato Si’ 220).

4. Community conversion

Ecological conversion takes place at the personal level, but as Pope Francis notes, a community conversion is equally important: “Social problems must be addressed by community networks and not simply by the sum of individual good deeds... The ecological conversion needed to bring about lasting change is also a community conversion” (LS 219).

How?

Sign up for HT Green Team updates (htgreenteam@trinity.org); make plans to attend the Green Fair on April 23; bring your reusable water bottle and fill up at stations outside McKenna Hall and the Faber Room; use compostable products at your parish meetings and events.

RECONCILING GOD, CREATION AND HUMANITY: AN IGNATIAN EXAMEN.

References: ignatiansolidarity.net, ecologicalexamen.org.

Begin the examen by placing yourself in a posture that allows you to be open to the ways the Spirit is working within you:

- Give thanks to God for creation and for being wonderfully made.
- Ask for the grace to see creation as God does—in all its splendor and suffering.
- Ask for the grace to look closely to see how life choices impact creation and the vulnerable.
- Ask for the grace of conversion towards ecological justice and reconciliation.
- Ask for the grace to reconcile my relationship with God, creation and humanity, and to stand in solidarity through my actions.
- Close with your favorite prayer on behalf of the Earth and the vulnerable of our world.

Loving God, pour your love into us so we may be filled with awe and compassion for all creation, and give thanks for our interconnectedness and interdependent lives. (adapted from Laudato Si’)✠.

Pope Francis did not come to the papacy with extensive experience in international diplomacy as did Pope Pius XII and Pope Paul VI. Yet, the Holy Father has excelled, behind the scenes, in the diplomatic domain, from Cuba to South Sudan to the UAE. Join a discussion with journalist Victor Gaetan, author of God’s Diplomats: Pope Francis, Vatican Diplomacy, and American Armageddon about this hidden aspect of the Francis pontificate. Victor Gaetan is senior international correspondent for the National Catholic Register. He contributes to Foreign Affairs magazine, America magazine, Catholic News Service, and others.

If the world reduced meat consumption by 15% it would save the same greenhouse gas emissions as taking 240 million cars off the road each year. Consider planning for meatless Mondays during Lent.

A VIEW OF THE LITURGY: THE IDEAL AND THE REAL WITH SR. CATHERINE VINCIE

March 19 | 4:00 PM, Trinity Hall. Join us for light refreshments at the Pre-Event Reception 3:00 PM, Upper School Cafeteria.

Sixty years ago this November, the Second Vatican Council issued the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy. What do we point to today as the basic principles of Catholic liturgy? What is wrong or missing in the liturgy? What is the feminist perspective on liturgy? And what is the intersection between the Church’s liturgy and the New Cosmology? Sr. Catherine will guide us through a thought-provoking discussion on the liturgy. Catherine Vincie, RSHM, is professor of sacramental and liturgical theology at the Aquinas Institute of Theology in St. Louis, Missouri. She is also past president of the North American Academy of Liturgy.

FAMILY STATIONS OF THE CROSS

March 24 | 6:00 PM in the Church followed by a Simple Supper in McKenna Hall.
Hosted by Holy Trinity’s Faith Formation students in grades 3-8, Youth Ministry and At Home Catechesis will present the Stations of the Cross as seen through the eyes of children in the first century. Students in grades 3-8 will also feature artwork depicting the stations. Following Stations all are invited for a Simple Supper in McKenna. Please RSVP or volunteer to bring a main or side dish to the Simple Supper through this link: bit.ly/3Y8eJde. All are welcome.

THE JOURNEY OF LGBTQIA+ CATHOLIC PARENTING

March 26 | 10:15AM, Trinity Hall
Parenting is a journey and the path can be smooth, but also perilous, especially with an LGBTQIA+ family member. As we travel through Lent, two parishioners, Liz DeJesus and Thea C. Bruhn, share their journey experiences as Catholics and as mothers, one of a LGBTQIA+ child and the other as a LGBTQIA+ parent. Come share in their travelogue – when there are no road maps (or GPS), sometimes God is the only guide. There will be time for questions and discussion.

ARCHDIOCESAN APPEAL UPDATE

Please note that the Archdiocese will be mailing all Holy Trinity households an appeal to contribute to this year's effort. Please feel free to ignore this mailing if you have given earlier. To-date, Holy Trinity parishioners have pledged $104,386, or 38% of our $273,200 goal - making us at present the 4th highest pledging parish in the Archdiocese. Thank you!

HT MIGRANT TEAM UPDATE

This week we bid bon voyage to Mario Fernandez. Mario was our first "official" migrant familia member in our current model. He joined us in 2018 and was sponsored by parishioners Jeanne Rossomme and Bruce Cohen and co-mentored by David Christian. His faith has been an inspiration to all of us. Granted asylum last November, Mario will first travel to the Kino Border Initiative to volunteer for 3 months. He plans to relocate to north Florida in early summer. He will continue to be a resource for our migrant familia. At this time we are accompanying five "active" individuals and families and providing ongoing guidance as requested to 15 graduates and friends. We are highlighting current needs:

- Employment Coaches. Bernadette, Hadia and Kateryna would benefit from a job coach to work with them on their employment outreach.
- Laptops (new ones or donated used ones that we can have refurbished).
- Donated cars for families. Our families average 4-6 members and the children are growing quickly!
- Employment opportunities or supplemental employment opportunities: Paralegal, home caregiver, house sitter, teacher aide; project manager.
- Gift cards to Giant or Trader Joes.
- Temporary housing (3-6 months) in DC for a 30 yo Haitian woman (speaks French and English).
