First Communion

by Kate Devlin, Lower School Assistant Principal

Seeing the glow of having experienced God's grace on second graders' faces as they process back to their pew after receiving First Communion is one of my favorite memories each year. The preparation process for First Communion is a true community affair, and if Holy Trinity is known for one thing, it is known for its strong community.

Families are the foremost teachers when it comes to being a child's educator. When HTS parent, Cait Crivella, reflected back on the experience from last year, she recollected, "Last year, my son, Connor, received his First Communion at Holy Trinity. It was something our entire family prepared for and looked forward to for months. There was the preparation work they did in Faith Formation with Ms. McGowan, the workbook and discussions we partnered on together at home, picking out the perfect outfit and inviting all the grandparents to take part in the special day." As the Saturday Vigil Mass last week concluded, the 8-and-9-year-old joy and that of their families was palpable. Family had traveled from near and far to honor this momentous occasion. One of our second graders wore her grandmother's First Communion dress; these sacred traditions represent the strength of the Catholic faith and Catholic family.

Three Current Third Graders After Their First Communion Last Year

At home and school, meaningful conversations were had to prepare the students for receiving the Body and Blood of Christ. In the week leading up to the students' First Communion, one traditional school day was replaced by a First Communion Retreat, planned by their Faith Formation teacher, Ms. McGowan. She planned a day that perfectly balanced the weighty nature of receiving a sacrament and the fun that comes with being a 2nd grader about to celebrate something wonderful. Students completed a craft representing how Jesus is in the Eucharist; they played a game of B-I-N-G-O with the topics relating to what they see in their church; they read and reflected on how Jesus nourishes us and gives us life. The students also received the opportunity to consume an unconsecrated host and practice the process with reverence.

Christina Duffy, a parent of a Holy Trinity third grader, noted, “What struck me most about the process was the overwhelming feeling of joy and ease at each celebration.” Those feelings are the end result of preparation by the children themselves, their families, our 2nd grade teacher, Megan McGowan, and Holy Trinity’s Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation, Anne Marie Kaufmann. It is collaboration and a true team effort with love at the core of every action.

Though we are on the other side of it, the pandemic does give us an additional appreciation for gathering together on occasions like this. Cait Crivella poignantly noted that her son’s grade “had been through a lot. Covid lockdown hit the Spring of their kindergarten year. We felt like we had missed so many big events - Christmas shows, field days, birthday parties, normal holidays. However, as we celebrated this sacrament of initiation with our kids, things were just as we had hoped. The circumstances magnified the wonderful church community we have and that their journey is just beginning.”✠

WE’RE BUDGETING NOW - 2023 PLEDGES NEEDED!

Thank you to everyone who offered a giving intention (Pledge) for 2023! We deeply appreciate your faithful commitment to the mission of Jesus Christ as lived out through our worship, sacraments and formation and service ministries. However, we have around 220 households who pledged in 2022 who have not yet renewed an intention for 2023. We use pledges, as well as scheduled recurring donations, to estimate our income for the next fiscal year - a process we are beginning right now. At present, we would have to cut our budget by tens of thousands to make up for pledges not renewed. If you have not yet offered a pledge intention, please do so now by scanning the provided QR code, or by going to trinity.org and clicking “Give” in the menu, or by contacting Rock Schuler, Director of Stewardship, rschuler@trinity.org or 301-455-5437. Thank you!

SPIRITUALITY OF WORK

June 3 | 9AM-12PM, McKenna Hall
RSVP to aklick@trinity.org by May 26

Anne Koester will guide our time together which will include small and large group discussion with some input about what spiritual writers and theologians have said about the spirituality of work. The spirituality of work or spirituality in the workplace is bound up in what we bring to our work and our workplaces, that is, ourselves – who we are and who we are becoming. For better or for worse, our work in life shapes who we are and in turn, we shape our work and our workplaces. Work offers us daily grace-filled and grace-enabled opportunities for deep encounters with God (in this sense, work has a sacramental dimension), which in turn means daily opportunities to experience transformation of life, to serve our global community, to practice good stewardship of our earth's resources, to care for creation, to contribute to the common good and the building of the reign of God.

HOLY TRINITY / ST JEAN BAPTISTE (HAITI) SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Since 2016 Holy Trinity has collaborated with our sister parish in Haiti, St. Jean Baptiste, to offer scholarships for students eager to continue their studies after graduating from the parish's secondary school, St Raymond's. Eight of our scholarship students have successfully completed their post-secondary studies. Two of these students have asked to be sponsored under the U.S. government's Haitian Humanitarian Parole Program. One studied pharmaceutical science and another learned how to be a chef by completing a program with Jose Andres' World Central Kitchens in Port-au-Prince. The Holy Trinity Migrant Team has agreed to support their stay in the U.S. Of our 31 currently enrolled HT/SJB Scholarship awardees, one student is studying to be a school director while others are studying agronomy, computer systems, nursing, law, engineering and teaching. The HT/SJB Haiti Committee hopes to enlarge our team of donors for the Class of '23. Last year we had 21 contributors. All contributions are welcome, but each "sponsor" commits to donating $250/year for four years. Our generous donors allow us to offer tuition scholarships to any student who receives admission to one of 8 programs in Haiti. Last year we were able support 12 new students attending 5 different programs! To donate to the St Jean Baptiste Scholarship Fund and to learn more about the various projects of the HT/SJB Committee contact StJeanBaptisteHaiti@gmail.com.
