The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The Limitless Love of Christ: Holy Trinity's LGBTQIA+ Ministry

By Brian Flanagan

We have much to celebrate this month. June is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a devotion long promoted by the Jesuits that emphasizes the passion and Christ's deep love for each one of us. In 2015, Pope Francis preached that "The Heart of the Good Shepherd tells us that his love is limitless; it is never exhausted and never gives up." Jesus' heart, the pope said, "desires to embrace all and lose none."

At the same time, June has become a month of celebration for the LGBTQIA+ community and our friends and families. In June, we celebrate Pride – not a sinful pride that puffs oneself up or denies one's limitations, but pride as the opposite of shame, as a virtue of gratitude for being the persons that God created us to be, and for having the courage to name that grace. Pride observances began as civil rights protests demanding that LGBTQIA+ people be treated fairly and with dignity, and now combine that continuing push for justice with celebration of how far we have come.

If you spend much time on Twitter (pro tip: don't!), you would get the resounding message, both from some Members of Holy Trinity's LGBTQIA+ Ministry distributing rosaries and parish information at last year's Capital Pride Festival.

Catholics and from some LGBTQIA+ folks, that these two June commemorations are mutually exclusive. I'm happy to say that here at Holy Trinity, we are lucky to be living a very robustly Catholic "both/and" that recognizes in our celebration of LGBTQIA+ Catholics not the opposite, but the embodiment of, the limitless love of Christ symbolized in his Sacred Heart.

The Limitless Love of Christ continued from page 1

I help to coordinate our LGBTQIA+ ministry, which was started by long-standing parishioners in 2019 and has grown in various ways in the following years. Some of our members have been here for decades, and others have joined us more recently, drawn to the parish by the steadfast support of our pastor, parish staff, and pastoral council. We hold discussion groups for men, for women and other historically marginalized genders, and for families, both parents of LGBTQIA+ children and LGBTQIA+ parents, and other events for conversation, spiritual development, and mutual support.

I'm happy to say that one of the best signs of the strong welcome of our parish is the fact that often LGBTQIA+ members of our community are too busy to attend our meetings! Instead, they have other commitments accompanying our RCIA candidates, teaching our children, serving at our liturgies, and working for social justice through our parish ministries. In our witness and service, you can find LGBTQIA+ Catholics celebrating pride and the love of Christ lived out in our love for God and others – all throughout the year with all our siblings here at Holy Trinity.

If you know LGBTQIA+ Catholics, especially any who have felt pushed away from the Church because of who they are or whom they love, please pass on the good news that they are welcome here and can always get more information by emailing lgbtqia@trinity.org.

And please join us on Wednesday, June 14, at 5:30 pm in the main church, for our annual parish Pride Mass and commemoration as we celebrate, together, the love of Christ that brings us together and calls us to continued mission in our world.✠

PRIDE MASS

June 14 | 5:30PM, Church

Join us to our annual parish Pride Mass, followed an ice cream reception.

STEWARDSHIP

EASTER FUND

The Feast of Pentecost marks the conclusion of this year's Easter season fundraising. Thank you so very much to everyone who gave to the 2023 Easter Fund! Your sacrificial generosity and commitment are deeply appreciated, and your gifts are used 100% in support of our parish ministries. Together, we bear witness to the Presence and Power of the Risen Christ's life through the active and energetic work of the Holy Spirit in our world, and especially through our parish, filled as it is with joyful children, beautiful gardens, engaging and enriching spiritual formation opportunities, and a steadfast commitment to serve others and advance justice. If you did not yet have a chance to give to this year's Easter Fund, this is your last opportunity! Please do so by:

- clicking the Donate button in the banner at the top of our website at trinity.org
- returning your donation in the hardcopy envelopes mailed with Father's letter
- scanning this QR Code:

Looking for a quick and easy way to make your Pledge or Offertory contribution in support of Christ's work here at Holy Trinity? Scan this QR Code to get started! Also, please note that every year we receive contributions - especially from stocks and IRA Distributions - that we cannot attribute to a donor. Your broker or agent often will NOT tell us the donor without your explicit instruction. For example, we recently received a Fidelity IRA Distribution of $4,308.47 for which no donor was identified. If you can verify this is your contribution, please let Rock Schuler know at rschuler@trinity.org. Thank you!

TODAY!

THE PRIDE AND PERILS OF COMING OUT

June 4 | after 9:30 AM Mass in Neale Room

The LGBTQIA+ Family Ministry will host a discussion on the pride and perils of coming out. June is pride month for the LGBTQIA+ community. While many think that 'coming out' only applies to someone who is LGBTQIA+, family members and friends also face the decision of whether to 'come out' to others about someone close who is LGBTQIA+. How can we listen to the Holy Spirit, support one another, encourage one another, and be who God wants us to be?. Today will be the last session of the LGBTQIA+ Family Ministry until the fall.
